

A breui-

at Chronycle, contaynyng all the Kynges, frō Brute to thys day, and many notable actes, gathered out of dyuers Chronicles, from millyam Cōque-roue, vnto the yeare of Christ.

M. C. L. F. wyth the Mayors, and Shiris-fes of the Citie of London, newly corrected and amended.

To know certaine, when the four termes of the yere, concernyng the law, beginneth and endeth.

The terme, nexte after the Natiuitie of our Lorde beginneth the .xxiiii. daye of January, and endeth the .xii. day of February.

Easter Terme beginneth the xiiii. day after Easter rekenyng Easterday for one, & endeth the fourthe day after the Ascencion of our lorde.

Trinite terme beginneth the morrowe after Corpus Christi day, and endeth the wednesday fortnight after.

Michelmas terme beginneth the ninth daye of October, & endeth the .xxviii. day of Nouember.

The

The Escheher is open alwaye viii. dayes before the beginning of euery Terme.

A true & perfect rekenyng fro the yeares and tyme, from Adam vnto Christe, gathered out of the holy Scripture.

From Ada vnto Noes floude are a. m. vi. c. lxxv. yeares.
** From Noes floud, vnto the departyng of Abraham out of Calde, are .ccc. lxiij. yerres and
x. dayes.

From the departyng oute of Calde, vnto the departyng of the chyldren of Israel out of Egipt, are .cccc. xxx. yeares.

From the departyng of the chyldren of Israel out of Egipte vnto the fyrste buildyng of the Tem-

Noen y. day

Abraham

from

16. 17. 18.

16. 17. 18. 19. 20. 21. 22. 23. 24. 25. 26. 27. 28. 29. 30. 31. 32. 33. 34. 35. 36. 37. 38. 39. 40. 41. 42. 43. 44. 45. 46. 47. 48. 49. 50. 51. 52. 53. 54. 55. 56. 57. 58. 59. 60. 61. 62. 63. 64. 65. 66. 67. 68. 69. 70. 71. 72. 73. 74. 75. 76. 77. 78. 79. 80. 81. 82. 83. 84. 85. 86. 87. 88. 89. 90. 91. 92. 93. 94. 95. 96. 97. 98. 99. 100.

Temple, or els vnto the fourth yeare of the reigne of Salomon are. cccc. lxxx. yeares.

From the fyrste buyldyng of the Temple, vnto the captiuite of Babylon, are. cccc. xix. yeares and vi. monethes.

From the captiuite of Babylon vnto the newe buyldyng a-gayne of Ierusalem, are. c. xliii. yeares.

From that tyme vnto Christ.
are. cccc. lxxiii. yeares.

These ben the Kynges that haue ben, sith Brute came into this lande fyrste.

Brute came into this lande After the makynge of the worlde. ii. M. viii. c. lb. yea-res Brute reigned. xxii. yeres Loocrine hys sonne xx. yere Gwen

7 ferrex & Porrex, sonnes to Corbodug. v. yeare

Thys porrex dyd slea hys brother ferrex, and theyr mother slew Porrex in hys bed, and thus was the last bloude of Brute, whych had reigned. vi. c. xvi. yea-res ouer thys realme, vtterly destroyed. whiche (for lacke of a gouernour) caused much strife, & dissentyon in thys realme, vntyl the tyme of Mumulcius Dun-wallo, which was about. li. yea-res: thys mulmucius was the sonne of Cloten, Duke of Cornewall, who ouercame the best of the rulers, & brought the realme agayn in to one Monarche.
Mumulcius reigned. xl. yea-res, Belinus and Brennius, or Bre-nycus, hys sonnes deuided the realme, and reigned together but in fine, Belinus dyd reygne too the ful of. xxvi. yea-res.

Cur.

Burguintus Belynes son. xix. ye Gunethelynus his son. xvi. yea.
Cecilius his sonne vii. yeare Bymarus hys sonne. iiii. yeare Clanius ix. yeare Mozindus hys bastard. viii. pere.
Gorbomanus, Mozyndus eldest sonne xi. yeare Archigallo the secōd son, whiche was then deposed v. yeare Elidurus the iii. son v. yeare Archygallo restored agayn, and died. x. yeare Elydurus chosen agayn. ii. yeare and thē by hys yonger brethern, Mygenius and Petydurus deposed. These Mygenius and Pery- durus Joyntly. vii. yeares. My- genius dyed & Perydurus reyg-ned. ii. yeares.
Elydurus restored agayne. iiii.
(yeare.
Gorbomianus his sonne. x. yeare ¶ Here the Chronographers do

do muche varye, for the tyme of xxii. Kinges, but I wyl folow Lanquet because of the compu-tacion of the yeares.

Morgan reigned. xiiii. yeares

Emerianus hys brother deposed. vii. yeares

Iuall then chosen. x. yeares

Kymo xvi. yeares

Gernucyus xi. yeares

Catellus x. yeares

Coilus succedid Cattellus. x.

yeares.

Porter v. yeares

Chirinus i. yeares

Fulgen hys sonne iii. yeares

Aldred i. yeares

Androgius i. yeares

Arrianus, a wycked man. iii. yea

Elud v. yeares

Dedancius v. yeares

Merianus ii. yeares

Bladunus ii. yeares

Capenus iii. yeares

Qui

|                                      |             |
|--------------------------------------|-------------|
| Quintus                              | ii. yeare   |
| Silius                               | ii. yeare   |
| Bledgadredus, the great Mus-sian | xx. yeare   |
| Archemalus                           | ii. yeare   |
| Eldalus                              | iiii. yeare |
| Rodianus                             | ii. yeare   |
| Redargius                            | iii. yeare  |
| Samulius                             | ii. yeare   |
| Denisellus                           | iii. yeare  |
| Pythus                               | ii. yeare   |
| Caporus                              | ii. yeare   |
| Diuellus, a good man.                | iiii. yere  |
| Helius his sonne not ful,            | i. yeare    |

Thus vnto the reyn of Helius, was thys realme in muche trouble, by the space of, viii,
c. bi. yeares, vnder. xxxi, or. xxxii, kynges.

Lud the eldest sonne of Helius.
xi. yeare Casibulanus his brother. xix. ye iii

in the .viii. yeare of his reygne, Julius Cefur dyd entre the
lande.

Theomancius the son of Lud Callibulaus nephew .xxiii. yeare Cymbelinus hys son .xxv. yeare

In the .xi. yeare of Cymbel nus was Chyriste borne.

Guidericus hys fyft son .xxvii
yeare

Arviragus hys brother .xxviii yeare some wyte .xx.

Marius hys sonne , as some d wyte .iii. yeare

Coilus hys son, as Fabian wy teth .liiii. yeare

Lucius hys sonne .lxxvii. yeare

In the .viii. yeare of hys reygne he sent letters too Clutharius B. of Rome, to send hym instru tores in the fayth of Chyrist , dyed wythout chylde, which ma de great variaunce in this real me, wherby p Romaines entre

Sen

Seuerus, a Romaine Empe-re began to reigne, about the yere of Christ, cc. viii. and reigned, v. yeares,

Maximianus, Emperour after his father Seuerus, about. v. yeare Maximianus a Bryttayne of Bale wythe. viii. yeare

Maximianus a duke of Rome, vi. yere.

Maximianus Duke of Cornewall. xxx. yeare

Maximianus duke of Colchester. xxvii, (yeare

Maximianus a Duke of Rome, some wythe xxx. yeares

Constantinus his sonne, xv. yea.

Maximianus liii. yeare

Maximianus cosyn Germaine to Constantyne viii. yeare.

Maximianus, a Romaine. iiii. yea

Then fell much controuercy the superwythe, and no yng known, untill the tyme

Constantinus brother to one Aldo

Aldronus, by the space of xlii. years

Constantine x. years

Constancius, a Monke of Wychechester his sonne vi. years

Mortigere, king by force. xvi. years re, and then deposed.

Mortunerus, his sonne vii. years

Mortygerus, the father agayne ix. years

Chengestus, the Saxone reyg-ned in Kente, Sussex, Norfolke and Suffolke, but alwayes in Kente xiiii. years

Aurelius Ambrose, brother to Constancius ix. years

Uter, sur named Pendragon his brother xvi. years

Arthure his sonne xxvii. years

Constantyne his cosyn. iii. years

Aureli<sup>9</sup> conat<sup>9</sup> his cosyn. ii. years

Mortiporius his son. iiii. years

Malgo a Duke of the Brytnes reygned xxxv. years

Ca

aretictis or Cortyse, beyng but a base by the .iii. yeare.

Then fell greate variaunce between the Brytains, which were divided into wailes, & the Saxon-es by the space of .xiiii. yeares a while Duke of Northwailes ruled a parte of this realme. xii.
yeare.

Hadwallē hys sonne reigned over the brytaines. xxxviii. yeare Hadwallader his son. iii. yeare.

Here endeth the lyne of the brytaines, continuynge after the date. M. viii. C. xii. yeares as Fabian sayth, & after thys tyme hys realme was called Anglia.

And now although that the barons had deuyded this realme into. vii. kyndomes, and diverselye dyd reygne, yet wyll I nowe forth folow, wyth the names of the West Saxones in order, because that (in processe of

De Bonis

De Finibus

Deo F.

of tyme) they subdued the other kynges, tyl it be brought again in to one Monarchye.

Jewe or Jue, kyng of the west Saxones. xxxvii. year

¶ And then left vp hys kyngedome (by the counsaile of hys wyfe) and went to Rome on pilgrimage.

Ethelardus his cosen. v. year

Cuthberte his nephew. xvi. year

Sygebertus hys cosen. ii. year

Kenulphus xxxi. year

Wyrthricus. xvii. year

¶ About the. ii. yeare of his reigne the Danes fyrste entred, he dyed of poison, geuen by hys wife. Eadbertus xxxvii. year

¶ He conquered the most parte of this lande, & caused it to be called Anglya, & the people Angles.

In the. xxix. yere of his reigne the Danes entred i Kent at the Isle of Shepey, and soo fro that were neuer clearly expelled untill the yere of Hardy henryte Ethelwulfus his son. xxii. yere Ethelwaldus hys eldest sonne. i. yere

Ethelbert the. ii. sonne. vi. yere

Etheldred<sup>e</sup> the. iii. son viii. yere

Edward the. ii. son. xxi. yere

Edward the elder, and sonne of

Edward the elder, and sonne of

Edward the elder, and sonne of

Edward the elder, and sonne of

Edward the elder, and sonne of

Edward the elder, and sonne of

Edward the elder, and sonne of

Edward the elder, and sonne of

Edward the elder, and sonne of

Edward the elder, and sonne of

Edward the elder, and sonne of

Edward the elder, and sonne of

Edward the elder, and sonne of

Edward the elder, and sonne of

Edward the elder, and sonne of

Edward the elder, and sonne of

Edward the elder, and sonne of

Edward the elder, and sonne of

Edward the elder, and sonne of

Edward the elder, and sonne of

Edward the elder, and sonne of Alfrede.

xxxviii. years

In his tyme, the Danes did much hurte in the realme, and tythed the monkes of Canter bury, that is to saye fewe. ix. referred the tenth.

Edmund Ironside hys sonne, Canutus, the son of Swamus, Kyng of Denmarke. i. yeare.

After that, Canut<sup>e</sup> alone. xx. yeare.
Harold harefoot his son. iii. yeare.
Hardikinitus his brother. ii. yeare.

Edwarde, the sonne of Egelred who was conueied into Nor mandy, for feare of the Danes was sent for, and reigned. xxi. yeare.
Harold the son of Godwin ne, Earle of Westsaxones, a lath Kyng of Saxones. i. yeare.

Here endeth all the Kynges that reigned before the Conquest.

William

William Conquerour.

William Duke of Normandy called Conquerour, Nephew brother to King Edward the Confessor, began his conquerour duke of normandy.

dominion over this realme of England, the xv. day of October in the yeare of our Lord. M. xcviij. and reigned. xxi. yeares one moneth with great cruelties towards the Englyshemen, charging them alwayes with great exactions, by meanes wherof he caused dyvers to flee oute of the land, he ordayned new lawes at his owne pleasure, profitable to hym selfe, and greuous and hurtfull to the people.

In the second yeare of this King Ederes reygne, the cyty of Ederes, and Northumberland, rebelled: whych both were subdued, & after

A. i.

ter

after greuously punyshed.

The englysh men oppressed.

Kyngge wylliam buylde certain Castelles wythin thys rea-me, and put Normans, to be go-uerners in them, who greatly oppressed the Englyshmen.

Wythop-pes & Ab-boies deposed.

About thys tyme, the kyng cased two Cardinalles to come fr-Rome, where by meanes of thkyng, they depolled certayne Wshoppes, Abbotes, and Priours Englyshmen, and in theyr place put in Normans.

The coun-tre about yorke destroyed.

In the .iiii. yeare of wylliam Conquerour, the Danes, inuded the North countre, & wonne yorke, but shortly after the kyng came & droue awaye the Danes and toke suche dyspleasure wyth the inhabitauntes of that pruynce, that he destroyed the land from yorke, to Durham, that yeare after, it laye vnlaboured and vntylled.

About

About thys tyme was a greate debate betwene Thomas, Arch bishop of yorke, and Langfranke Archbishop of Canterbury, for the Primacy of Englande, but the bishop of Cāterbury obtayned, & the bishop of yorke, made him an othe of obeysaunce.

In the .x. yeare of thys kinges Reygne, Roger earle of Hereford, and Rafe erle of Norfolke, conspired agaynste Kyng William the beyng in Normandy, whyche were both outflowed the realme and earle Malrese, that uttered the conspiracy, was be headed.

About the .xv. yeare of hys Reygne Robert Courteyse, the kinges elder sonne, wyth the helpe of Phylippe the frenche king, made warre agaynste hys fether in Normandy, where king William, was sore hurt & afterwarde a prace was made.

A varlaunce betwene
the bishop for the primacye.

A cōspira-cy agaynst
the kyng

A battay-le in Normandye.

A.ii.

made

made betwene them.

The mar-
kyng of newe forrest.

no englysh men bare on office in Eng-
lande.

A great tribute.

the death
of wyllyam conquer-our.

Thys kyng wylliam made the new forest in Hamthere, and therefore he cast downe dyuerse churches by y space of xxx. miles.

In his tyme he kept the Englyshmen so lowe, that few of them bare any office of honour in Eng-
lande.

Also in the .xix. yere of Kyng wylliams reygne, he beyng in Normandy, rayled a greate tribute in Englande, & caused to be gathered of euerye hyde of landes, whiche contayneth .xx. Acres vi. s.

Shortely after the kyng made warre into Fraunce, where he dyd much hurt, but in thys hea-te he toke suche a dylease, that cost him his life, in hys spekenge he made hys testament, and gave to wylliam Rufus hys second sonne, the kyngdome of Englande.

and to Robert courteise hys eldest sonne the Duchye of Norma-dy, and vnto Henry his. iiii. sonne he gaue hys treasure, thus he ended hys lyfe in the moneth of July, and lyeth buried in Cane in Normandy.

Wylliam Rufus.

William Rufus, oz william the Redd, beganne hys rey-gne ouer thys realme, the se-uentene daye of Septembre, the yere of Chryst. M. lxxxix. Sone after, wylliam Rufus had take on him the kyngdome, hys brother Roberte Courteyse came out of Normady, and landed at Hampton, to the entente to haue out hys brother from the kyngdome, but the kyng sent to him Ambassadors, so at the last they were agreed that wylliam Rufus should be kyng, payinge

A gremet betwene
william
Rufus & hys brother,

A. iiii.

to

to hys brother yearly. iii. thousand Markes, and eche of them to be others ayre.

Arabel: yon against the kyng

In the second yeare of the kyng, diuers lordes in England rebelled against the kyng, and assayled dyuers townes, but kyng Wyllyam, banquished the traytours, and chased them out of hys realme.

Marthyth
the Scott-es.

In the iii. yeare of Wyllyam Rufus, the Scottes warred on Englande, wherefore kyng Wyllyam prouyded an armye, & went thether where after dyuers comblyctes and scermyches, a peace was concluded so that Malcolme kyng of Scottes, was sworn to be trew to kyng Wyllyam.

A great
synne in England.

In the.iiii. yeare of Wyllyam Rufus, there was a great wynd in London, that blew downe many houses, and the rouse of Westmynster churche, and dyd great hurte.

Wyndchester and other places.

In this tyme also, the welche menne rebelled, but they were subdued theyr Duke or kynge called Rysle slayne, whiche was accompted the laste bynge of wales. The kynge of wales slayne.

Also Malcolyn, kynge of Scotis rebelled, and came with an army into Englande, but the earle of Northumberland encountered wyth hym, and there kynge Malcolyn was slayne. The kynge of Scotis slayne.

In the .vi. yeare of Rylly, in Rufus, there was prepared to Jerusaleme, a myghty armie of three. C. M. menne wythynne Jerusaleme, whose soveraygne captayne was Godfrey, Duke of Lozayne and his two brethren, wyth manye other noble menne of Chrystendome. A byage to Jerusaleme At this tyme, manye noble A. iiii. men.

borowing men layed theyr landes to mo of mony gage, too prouide for the forena for thys med boyage, among whiche wa plage. Roberd Curtaise, Duke of No great tax ynge.

great mo talytpe.

westmyn-ster hal bwylded.

Jerusalem was by the chryste was mandy, he layed hys Dukedom to pledge, to his brother william Kyng of Englad, for a. c. m. po

About the. viii. yeare of wy lyam Rufus, bothe England Normandy were greuously tax and also there was a greate mo talytpe amonge men, so sharpe that tillage of the earthe was put of for that yeare, whereb ensued greate hunger and scar tie in the yeare folowynge

About the. xi. yere, of the kyn he builded westminster halle.

In thys yeare also, the chry men wan Jerusalem, after th had beseged it. xxxix. dayes, an Godfry the souerayne captayn of chrysten me, was proclaym kyng of Jerusalem.

Thy

Thys king william had great the deat pleasur in hunting, in so muche of wylly that he pulled downe many hou Rufus, ses of religion, to enlarge the new forest of wynclore, for wylde dere, but a frenche knyghte of hys named water Terel, by the glaunsing of his arowe vpon a braunch, when he shot at a harte in the said forest, smote the kyng and wounded him to death, wher of he shortly died in the yeare of our Lord, m.c. without any yssue of hys body, and he reigned. xii. yeare and. x. monethes, and is buried at westminster.

Henry the fyrste.

 Enry, the brother of wyllyam Rufus, and first of that name, for hys learnynge called Beweclarke, and, iii.
sonne to wyllyam Conquerour was crowned kyng of England
the

the. v. daye of August, the yeare of our Lord. M. C. i.

Measures
restored.

Thys Henry was a noble prince in the fyrste yeare of hys raygne he reformed the measure in England, which of longe tyme were corrupted, he vbled the lawes of sayncte Edward, soone after he was kynge, he tooke to wyfe Maude, the syster of Edgare, Kynge of Scottes.

The kynge released of hys tribute.

In the fourth yeare of thys Kynge, Robert Curtpyse the kynges brother came into Eng-lande, and was well entreated of the Kynge and the Quene, and there the Duke released the kynge of hys trybute of thre thoulande markes, but it was not longe after by meanes of fayle beares, and yll reporters, that greate varyaunce fell betweene the kynge and the Duke

of

of Normandy his brother, and shortely there vppon, deadlye warre was arrered in the ende wherof Duke Roberte was take and kepte in perpetuall pryson at Cardyffe, by hys brother, who immedyately sealed vppon the Duchy of Normandy, and helde it in possession.

In the .vi. yeare of kyng Henry the fyrste, the earle of Shrew-ysbury, and the Earle of Cornewall rebelled agaynst kyng henry, and after were taken, and kept in pryson as longe as they lyued.

Aboute thys tyme also, the kyng ordayned straghte lawes agaynst theues, and other that vled vnlawfull meanes whych were punyshed, some wyth death, some wyth losse of theyr eyes, of theyr stones, and other members of man, as theyr tres-

A rebel-lyon in en-glande.

Punyshement for transgre-ssours.

trespas requyred.

By the meanes of Anscime, Bishop of Cantorbury, the prestes of England were contrayned to forgo theyr concubins, which before they vnlawfully bled openly

An earth
quake.

About the .xiii. yeare of kynge Henris raign was a great earthquake at Shrewsbury, and the ryuer of Trent was so drye that men might go ouer dry shode.

Peace be twene eng
lande and
fraunce,

In the xvii. yeare of Kynge Henris reygne, began great variance betwen Lewes, & frenche kyng, & kyng Henry of England, and at the last was foughte betwene theym a cruell battaylle, where the Englishmen optained the victorie, & the frenche kyng fled, but shortly after, a peace was concluded, and wylliam the eldest sonne of Kyng Henri, dyd homage to the frenche kyng for the duchy of Normandy.

In

In the .xx. yeare of Henry the first, William Duke of Normandy, the kynge by, the kynge's eldest sonne, and Richard his brother, and Mary their sister, Richard Earle of Chester wyth his wyfe the kynge's niece, and other to the num-bre of a. c. & vi persons, passynge from Normandy into England, by ouersyght of the Shypmayster were drowned, and none scaped but one man.

About the .xxvi. yeare of this kynge, there was a counsell holden at London, for the correctition of the vicious lyuynge of the priestes to be done by the kinges officers.

In the .xxvii. yeare of Kynge Henries reygne, because he had none other issue male, ordained his daughter Maude, which had ben Empresse, shoulde succede hym in the kyngdome.

About

The kynges two sones disowned.

Maude
the Em-presse made ayre of the res-aine.

Maude: p Emperesse
marryed,

he death of king he
p. 2 the. i.

About the .xxviii. yeaere, one Geffery Plantagenet, Earle of Angeo marryed the sayde Maude, and by her had issue Henry, whiche Henry after kynge Steuen was kynge of Englande.

This kynge Henry the fyrste, being in Normandye, in the .xxv. yeaere of his reygne, the seconde daye of December, in the yeaere of Christe a. m. a. c. .xxv. dyed, some saye of a surfet and some wyters saye, it was by a fall of a horse.
And his bodye was broughte into Englande, and is buried in the Abbey of Reddinge.

¶ Of kynge Steuen.

Steuen Earle of Boloine, the sonne of the Earle of Blois, and Adela wylliam Conquerours daughter.

and

and Nephew to Henry the fyrste, toke on hym the gouernaunce of this realme of England, through the counsaile of manye Lordes of Englande, contrarpe to theyr othe, made to Maude the Em-presse, and was crowned kynge vpon S. Steuens daye, the ycare of Criste. M. C. xxxv.

At this tyme there was great variance bariaunce in Englande, for king in Eng Steuens was thought to be kynge lande. bniustlie, for many of the Lordes of Englande fauoured Maude & Empresse, and other fauoured Steuens, who was kinge, of the whiche folowed greate warre.

This kynge Steuens besye- Castelles ged dyuers castels, that belon- besieged, ged to Byschoppes and other Lordes, and tooke theym by force, and fortyfied theym wyth hys owne knyghtes and seruauntes, to the entente to with to withstād the Emperesse whose commynge he euer feared.

yll tales both much hurte.

In the second yere of kynge Steuē, there rose a greate ru-more in Englande, that kynge Steuē was dead, whych tayles rose much barpaunce in Englaṇd for dyuers of the lordes got the too their holdes, whiche after myghte scandlye be pacyfyed or quieted.

A kyng in to norma nye.

Shortly after, the kyng went into Normandy, and kept war wyth the Earle of Aniove, the husband of Maude the Emperesse whiche was ryghte ayre to the Crowne of England, and when he had quieted that prouynce, he made Eustace hys sonne Duke of Normandy.

A battay-
e and the ing take rysoner.

In the .vi. yere of kyng Steuē the emperesse came into Englande, by the comfort of the earle of Glocester, and the Earle

Carle of Chester, and made ströge warre bypon kynge Steuen, in the ende whereof: the kinges partye was ouercome, and hym selfe taken prisoner, and was brought to the Emperesse, who sente hym to Byrktowe to pryson.

Shortlye after thys batayle, the Gentishmen and Londoners roose, and tooke parte wyth the kynge, and at a felde fough ten at Winchester; they ouercame the Emperesse, and she fled to Gloucester, and Carle Robart of Gloucester was taken, but shortlye after, bothe the kynge and Carle Roberte were deliuered oute of pryson by exchaunge.

Shortlye after, the kynge gathered a greate power, and the Emperesse fledde vnto Oreforde, where the kinge dyd besyge her, but she fled away by nyghte, and went to Wallingford, and thore

A batayle at winchester.

the emper-esse besieged.

Ive after wyth a smalle comp ny, he went into Normandy to her husbände Gessery Planta genet.

A chylde crucified in despyt te of chur

About the. x. yeare of Kyng Steues reigne, the Jewes that dwelte in Englande, tooke: and crucified a childe at Norwyth bpon Easter daye, in derision of Christ and hys religyon.

the death
of gessery ye plan-aginet.

In the. xi. yeare of kyng uen, Gessery Plantagenet, earl of Anioue, and husbände Maude the Emperesse, after had wonne from kyng Steue the Duchy of Normandy, ended hys lyfe, and Henry his son suc ceded the Dukedome.

Henry the
seconde entred in England

Henry Duke of Normandy y quarrell of hys mother Maude the Emperesse, with a great saunte entred into England and at the fyrste won the castell of Malmesbury, then the Count re of London, and afterwarde the towne of Nottingham, with other holdes and Chastelles, be-twene hyni and kynge Steuen were fought manye battayles, whiche by thys realme was sore troubled.

In the. xliii. yere of Kynge Steuen, peac was a greed be-twene Maude the Emperesse her sonne and kyng Steuen, on thys condpcion, that Steuen shoulde be kynge, durynge hys lyfe, but for all thys peace, kynge Steuen tooke suche thoughte and care that he dyed in the. xv. daye of Octobre next folowynge, in the yere of Christe. M. C. liiii. for a pease be-twene the Emperesse

and kynge Steuen.

the death
of kynge Steuen,

he was in warre and trouble all the terme of hys lyfe, and he was buried at Feuerhamme.

Henry the seconde.

Henry the seconde and sonne to Geffery Plan tagenet Earle of An geo, and Maude the Empresse, was crow ned kyng the .xx. daye of Decem bre, the yere of Chypte. M. c. lv.

Henry the
seconde
greatly en larged his kingdom.

This kyng was a noble man, and much fortunate in warres, greatly enlarged his kyngdome.
But dyuers wyters, whych more dyd fauoure the doynges of Thomas Becket then & trueth wyte that in his latter dayes he was vnfortunate, but by his greate manhod and pollycye, the singnoy of England was much augmented wyth the addicyn of Scotlande, Irelande, the les of Orcades Britayne, Pow tow, Gyon and other prouynces of Fraunce, wherefore it maye be euident to all men, that his good w

will was to refozme in his time the clargie, but as then God had not appointed it.

In the seconde yeare of kyng <sup>Defacin</sup> Henrye the seconde, the, kyng of castels caste downe dyuers castels, why-che were sette vp in the tyme of kyng Steven to defende Hau-de the Emperesse his mother.

After that he wente into the Northe partes, and receyued of <sup>Abi age in</sup> the kyng of Scottes, Cumber- <sup>top north</sup> lande, and Nor-humberlande, <sup>countrie</sup> whiche they sayde were geuen to thepm, by Haude hys mother, and set an order in that countre.

In the.iii.yeare of this kyng <sup>Abi age in</sup> Henries reygne, he went wyth a <sup>to wales,</sup> stronge Arme into wales, and oppressed that countrey, and after buylded the stronge castell of Rutlande.

Aboute the .v. yeare, of thys <sup>A ci me</sup> kings reigne, rose a greate Scis- <sup>at Rome,</sup> B.iii. me

me continued .xx. years, & much trouble folowed,

The kynge
of Scotts taken pry
soner

In the .viii. yeare kynge Henry kepte suche warre into Scotland that he tooke kynge Wyllyam prysoner, whiche afterwarde was deliuered, and the kynge of Scottes dyde fealty and homage to kynge Henry.

Thomas
Becket
led the realme.

In the .x. yeare of thys kynge Thomas Becket, Archebysshoppe of Cantorbury, which sediciously vnder pretence of defendynge the libertyes of the churche, as he sayde: spake and did many thynges agaiuste the kynges Prorogatiue royall (dyd flee oute of the realme, & went to Rome, to come playne vppon the kynge to the Bysshoppe of Rome.

Thomas
Becket. &

In the .xvii. yeare of kynge Henry. Thomas Becket, by entreatye of the Bysshop of Rome, and Lewes the frenche kynge,

was

was restored to hys Byshoprike and not longe after by certeine gentilmen was slayne.

Kyng Henry in the .xviii. yere of his reigne, sent Ambassadors to the Byshoppe of Rome, too pouge hym selfe of the false ac-cusacyon of the deathe of Thomas Becket, but amonge other thynges it was enioyned the kyng in hys penaunce, that it shoulde belawfull to all hys subiectes, as often as theym lyst to apeale to the sea of Rome, and that no manne shoulde be accompted as kyng, vntyll suche tyme as he were confirmed by the Romysh Byshoppe. By thys almen maye perceyue that the By-shoppes of Rome alwaye desired to haue prynces and kynges ready at theyr becke, but thys Intencion was neuer fulfilled of the Kyng of Englande.

B. iiii.

In

In this yere also, kynge Hen-rye wente into Ireland, and subdued it, and annexed Irelande to his kingdome.

The kynges eldest son crowned kinge
In the .xxii. yere of Kynge Henrye, he caused Henrye hys el-deste sonne to be crowned kynge, & married Margaret, the French kinges daughter.

warre be-twene the father & the sonne Shortly after, kynge Henrye his sonne, at the setting on of the French kynge and the kynge of Scottes, wyth dyuers other, made warre agaynst kynge Hen-rye hys father, where were be-twene theym dyuers strong bat-tays, but alwayes the father had the victorie, and at the last hys sonne wyth hys alyes were constrained to benche, and desired peace, which he gentellye graun-ted, and for gaue theyr trespasses.

In this warre, wylliam Kynge of Scottes was taken.

prisoner, and yelded for his rān some the cytye of Carlyle, the of Bambrough, the newe castell pypon Tyne, and swoze for euer to be trewe to the kynge, and as well he to doo homage as his successours, as ofte as they shulde be required,

The kynge
of scottes
taken pry
soner.

Aboute thys tyme were ma nye Jewes in Englande, whych agaynst the feaste of Easter, dyd use to crucifie yonge chyldren, in despite of Christian religion.

Manye Jewes in Englande.

In the .xviii. yeaere, Henrye the eldest sonne of kynge Henry of England, ended his lyfe.

he arre res newed in
fraunce,

Shortlye after began the warre in fraunce, for kynge Philip of fraunce, desyred homage to be doone to hym, for the landes of Boytowe and other, and for the castel of Gysours.

In the .xxiii. yeaere of kynge Henry the seconde, Richard earle B. b. of of Poitow, made warre agaynst kyng Henry of Englande hys father, and takynge parte wyth the frenche kyng, wan from hys father many townes & castelles, for sorow wher of shortly after, kyng Henry ended hys lyfe, in the yere of Christ. M.c.lxxxviii. and is buryed at Fountuerarde in Fraunce.

Richard the fyrst.

Richard the fyrste, and second sonne of kyng Henry the second, was Crowned kyng of England, the.iii.day of Septēber, the yere of Christ.
M.c.lxxxix.. Thys man for hys baliantnesse & corage, was cal led Curdelion.

Two bayliffes go-uerued lo doo.

In the fyrste yere of kyng Richard, the Londoners obtay ned two officers to guide they citie, whiche were called Baili ffes.

About thys tyme, the Jewes ate them selues verpe bolde in London in so much that the people rose agaynste them, and dyd robbe and kyll manye of theym wythout pytpe. But because the offendoures were so manye, they escaped wythout punymente.

Also in this fyrst yeare, Rayllim kyng of Scotcs came to Canterbury, and did homage to kyng Rycharde.

About this tyme, the Byrnes of chrystendome made greate pre-paracion to rccouer Hierusalem to aide the Christians in Asia.

In the thyrde yeare of kyng Rycharde, he wyth a noble ar-mye, tooke his Jurny towarde Hierusalem, and by the waye he conquered the yle of Cypres.
Afterwarde he ioyned with th emence king in Asia, & conquere

Ahor

The Jew es spoiled at london

The kyng
of Scotts
dyd homa ge

A prepara cion to re couer hier usalem.

The yle of cypres con quered

Alon, but shortlye after, the fell greate barpaunce betwene kinge Richarde of Englad, & kynge philip of fraunce, wherfore kinge philyp returned whome into fraunce, and inuaded Normandy and also he counsailld John the brother to kynge Richarde take bypon him the kyngdome Englande in his brothers absence.

The cytelle of Joppa
wonne.

Shortlye after kynge charde of Englande restored the Christians the citie of Jop-pe, and in manye battayles, put the Turkes to muche sorowe.

The cruel tye of the bishop of Clype.

In the.iiii. yeare of kynge Richarde, and whyle he was in Asia, wylliam bishop of Clype to whome kynge Richarde had commytted the gouernaunce of Englande, practysed much cru-eltye, as in depreyninge of Byschops and abbottes, and woulde remoune

with a .v. hundred horses, whereby he reueled the place wher he sojour-ned. But at the last by strength the lordes put him out of the lād.
Kynge Rycharde exchaunged himself wyth Guye of Lelynge King Richard his for the kyngdome of Iye, chard his Jerusalem, wherefore the kyng of al Hieru-salem.
Englande of a longe tyme, after was called Kynge of Hieru-salem.

In the .v. yere kynge Rycharde marryng that kynge Phylip of King Ri-France inuaded Normadye, and chard tathat John his brother aspired ken pris-to his kyngdom, toke peace wyth soner. the Turkes for .iii. yeres, and wyth a smal companye, returned homwarde by France, and there was traitorously taken prisoner by the Duke of Austryche, and brought hym to Henry the Em-perour, & he was kept in strenght in prison a yere and, v. Monethes where where it is said he slewe a Lion and toke out hys heart.

King Richard deli-uered out of prison.

In the .vi. yeare of kyng Richardes reigne, he payed his ransome, which was a C. M. pound and was delyuered, and returned to hys countre, and made warpe warre vpon the French kyng, and John hys brother, at which tyme was fought dyuer greate batailles too the great losse of both partyes.

Peace between eng-
lande and France

In the .viii. yeare of kyng Richardes reign, ther was a peace concluded betwene England and fraunce, for one yeare: and John submitted hym selfe to hys brother.

In the .x. yeare of kyng Richardes reigne, Innocente the iii. Byshoppe of Rome, he fyrst compelled men to Auryculer confession, and forbad the Sacrament to be ministred to the lay ie vnder bothe kynges.

Shortely after the war was newe areted betwene Englande and fraunce, wherefore kyng Rycharde sayled agayne into Normandy, and made newe war upon the frenche kyng, in which warre they spede dyuerslye, for some tyme the frenche kinge was holdes in Normandy, and some tyme the kyng of Englande was in fraunce. But at the laste kyng Rycharde wente too besiege a Castell, Called Castell Baylarde & as he rode about the Castell to auer it one marked hym, and smot hym with a Qua rell in the heade, wherof anon after he dyed wythoute yllue of hys bodye, in the yere of Christ.
1195, and in the .xii. yere of hys reigne. And is buried at Fount uerarde.

Kyng

the death
of King Richard
the first.

king John contemp-ned the bishoppe of rom of a frowarde mynde.

¶ Kyng John.

I

hon. brother to the boue named Rycharwas crowned Kyng of Englande the .xviii. day of July, the year aboue witten, and reigned .xviii. yeares. This kyng contemned the Byshop of Romes aucthor-tye, whiche yf he had doone it conscience, and for relygyous sake, as he semeth to doe for cotte-ousnes, and of a frowarde minde bndoubtedlye: he had bene worthy hys commendacion. But hys cowardnes and slothfull negle-gence the singnorpe of Englande greatlye decayed.

war bega betwene
England
france

In the fyrste yeare of kyng Johns reygne, kyng Philyp of fraunce, (in the quarell of Arthur, Duke of Brytayne, whom certayne of the Lordes had named kyng of Englande) made warre warre bpon kynge John and in-uaded Normandye, and toke fro him dyuers Castelles and townes: but after long schirmyshes, to the losse of both partyes a peace was agreed, whiche continued not longe.

In thys yeare, the kynge of The kynge of Scots.
Scotes came into England, and did homage, and swore to be true faythfull manne to kynge John of Englande. tes dyd homage

In the seconde yeare, in yorke shyre were seene. v. Moones at ones in the elemēt, and the nexte wynter after was a sharpe winter, and hayle felle as bigge as henes egges. A sharpe wynter.

In the. iiii. yeare of kynge Johns reygne, kynge Philip of frunce inuaded Normandye, and tooke dyuers castels & two townes, whych he gaue too Arthur Duke of Brytayne. But shortly after arthur of britain to ken prys
soner.

C. i.

after

after, the same Arthur wyth many other noble men were taken prisoners by kynge John, and led into England.

Englande In the. vi. yere of this kynge the Byshop of Rome denounced enterdy- kynge John wyth his whole realme accursed, because he would not admytte Steuen Langton to the Byshoppyke of Cantorburie. But he lyttel regarded his curse, nor obeyed hym in any thing the rather.

Normandy In the. vii. yere of kinge John's regne, kinge Philip of Fraunce subdued Normandy, whiche was not vnder the dominion of Fraunce in. ccc. yeres before.

The Welsh Aboute this tyme, the Welsh men and Brytanyenne rebelled. whome kynge John constrained to redeme peace wyth. great sommes of money.

Aboute this tyme, Philip

Emperoure of Almayne, was The emper murdered by the treason of the our mur- countye of Valentyne. thered.

In the .ix. yere of kyng Thoms The fyfte ygne, was fyfte ordayned Mayre of Maiois & Shyryffes in London, London. and the fyft Maiois name was empe fytz Alwyn, and the fyft shyffes, were Peter Duke, and Thomas Pele.

About the .xiii. yere of kyng king thom Johns reigne. Phiipp of Fraunce reconciled made sharpe warre vpon Eng. to the bys hoppe of Rome at the settinge on of the Byshoppe of Rome. In so muche that kyng John was compe to submit hym selfe to the bysshop of Rome, who was bound that as well he as hys ayres shoulde holde the Crowne of the bysshoppe of Rome, and shoulde paye yearly a .M. markes of sterling,

In

C.ii.

Lewes the French
kings so entred in to englad

the death
of kynge
John.

In the. xvi. yeare of Kynge John great strife and voriaunce happened in England, betwene the kynge and the Lordes, and commons of his realme. In much that the kynge sente into flaunders for succure, and the nobles sent for Lewes, the sonne of kynge Philippe of Fraunce and him saluted as kynge, and mayntened hym in war against kynge John, to the great hurt of this realme of Englande, dur-ring the time of this war, kynge John ended hys lyfe, and dyed the flire at newarke vpon Trent the xix. day of October, the yere of Christe. M. cc. xvi. But some auctors write that a moke prisoned him at Swinestede, and is buryed at Worcester.

Henry the thyrde.

Henry the thyrde of that name and eldeste sonne to kynge John by the aide of certain lordes of Englande, was crowned kinge at .ix. yeaeres of hys age, whiche kynge wyth hys aydes, kepte shappe warre wyth Lewes the french kynge. onne who by couenaunt of cerayne Lordes of Englande, claimed the crowne, but after car-ayne Skymishes and battayes a peace was concluded so that Lewes shoulde departe into fraunce. and for his trauayle he had a thousande Markes, & so departed.

Lewes returned in to fraunce.

In the fyrste yeaeres of kynge Henrys reygne, were ordayned manye lawes in Englande, to the greate commodyty of his subiectes. And the greate charter, C.iii. called

Magna carta confirmed.

called Magna carta was confirmed, and dyuers articles added thereto,

The kyng
of scottes
marryed.

In the fourthe yere of Alexander kyng of Scottes marryed Joan the syster of kyng Henry of Englande.

Strangers put out of the realme.

In this yere also: there was a Proclamation made throughout England, to auoyde strangers. Be cause one Foukes de Brent, helde the castell of Bedford agaynste the kynges wylle.

The com-
myng in of y gray fryers.

In the .v. yere of kyng Henryes reinge, the Gray fryers of the order of Fraunciscus, came fyrst into Englande.

Abtage in to butain

In the xiii. yere of Kyng Henry .iii. he sayled into Wyndesore with a noble army, agaynste Lewes kyng of Fraunce, whereafter spoylynge of the country, a peace was concluded betwix the two younge prynces.

In the .xvi. yere of thys kynges raigne, a variaunce kynde-led betwene kynge Henrye and hys Lordes, because he put from hys seruyce Englyshmen, & trusted straungers as wel in hys consaile as other offycers next about him.

A variaunce between the kynge
and hys
lordes.

In the .xix. yere, kynge Hen-rye tooke to wife Ellynour, dought-er of the Earle of Brouynce.

The kynge
married

About the .xxi. yere of kynge Henrie, the vniuersite of Paris concluded that no priestes, vnder paine of deadly synne shoulde haue two benefices.

No priest ought to haue .2. be-nefices.

In the .xxxi. yere, kyng Hen-rye sealed the fraunchesse of the Cytie of London, for a iudge-ment geuen agaynst a wyndow, named Margaret wyell. But shortly after they were restored.

The liberties of London loste.

In the .xxxbiii. yere, Prince Edwarde, eldest sonne too kynge C. llii Hen-

The fyrst prince of Wales.

Henry married Elynoure daughter to the kyng of Castel, to whom the kyng Henry gaue the Princely cypalytpe of Wales, and the gouernance of Guien, and Ireland wherof began fyrst that the kynges of Englande ordayned their sonnes princes of Wales.

The battayle at Lewes.

In the .xlviii. yere of Kyng Henryes reigne, great variaunce was betwene the kyng and his Lordes and commons. In so muche that nere vnto Lewes, Kyng Henry and his Barons fought a cruell battayle, wher the kyng losse the felde where were deliuered by promyse the kyng him selfe, with Rycharde his brother kyng of Romaines, and syr Edward his sonne and other noble men, to the numbere of .xxv. were taken, of y commons and were slaine .xx. thousande.

The kyng and his brother made made, to performe certayne Actes made at Oxforde in the parliament before, for suerty wherof, prince Edward remayned as pledge.

The kyng
delyuered out of pris
son.

Shortely after fel great battaile betwene the earle of Glocester, and the earle of Leycester, and Prince Edward tooke parte wyth the Earle of Glocester, and at kyllynge worth was fought a cruell battaile, the victorye fell on Prince Edwardes parte.

The battle
at kyllynge worth

Shortely after syr Symond Mounford, earle of Leicester gathered a newe armye, and mette Prince Edward at Eueham, where syr Symounde the earle, was slayne, and dyuers other that tooke his parte.

The battle
at Eueham

Aboute the .liiii. yere kyng Henryes reigne, was suche displeasure taken agaynst the Londoners

The liberties of london
loste,

C. v. doners

Marshall's history of England

Doners that the kyng sealed the lybertyes into hys handes. But after the city by meanes of fren des) payed a fine of. xx. M. Mar kes, and so was restozed to the libertye.

His page into the holy lande.

In the. lv. yeare of thys kyng Edward the kynges sonne tooke hys journey into the holy lande, and there he rescued the citty of Acres, which was besieged by the Soudan of Surrye.
During whiche voyage Prince Edward, beyng in the holy lande: kyng Henry hys father fell sycke at westminster, and died the. xvi. day of November the yeare of Christe. M. cc. lxxii. and is buryed at westminster.

The death
of kyng
Henry the third.

Edward the first.

Edward the firste of that name, and sonne to Henry the. iii. after he harde of the death of hys father, cam from holy holy lande. And was crowned kynge at westminste the .xix. day of August the yere of chryste M. cc. lxxiii. At whiche tyme. Alexander kynge of Scottes was present, and did homage to kynge Edwarde.

The kynge
of Scottes
dyd homage
to kynge
Edwarde

In the second yere of kynge Edward, the kynge wente into Wales, and subdued Lewellyn Prynce of Wales whiche payed to the kynge for a fyne. L. M.
Markes.

In the .x. yere of thys kynge Lewellyn Prynce of Wales rebelled, but after they pursued so the welchemen, that Lewellyn and hys brother David fled, but after Lewellyn was taken by Sir Edmond Mortymer, who smote of hys heade, and sente yt to the kynge, and after that hys brother was hanged, drawen & quartered.

A batall
in Wales

In

The liber
ties of lon don sealed

In the .xiii. yeares of this king the kyng sealed the lyberties of London into hys handes be cause the Mayre tooke byrbes of the bakeres. And suffred them to sel breade vnder the sile,

A battay
in scotland

In the .xxiii. yeares of kyng Edward, the Scottes dyuers tymes rebelled, wherefore kyng Edward besieged the towne of Barwyche, where was foughte a cruel battaile, the vyctory fell to the Englyshe men, and wanne the towne, where were slaine of the Scoters. .xxv. And after warde the kyng of Scottes sub mitted hym selfe to kyng Ed warde of Englande.

A battile of Fan
wyke

In the .xxvi. yeare (kyng Ed warde beyng in flaunders) the Scottes rebelled, & chose theim a newe kinge called wales: and entred in Northumberlāde, But the nexte yeare after, kyng Ed ward warde gathered a great power, and entred Scotlande, and at a place called Frankyke hee mete wyth the Scottes, where be-twene them was fought a cruel batel but at the end the English men had the victoꝝ, and slew of the Scottes, to the numbꝛe of. ccxii. M. and mayles they new chosen kynge fled into the maris-ses, and the common people yel-ded them to the kynge of Eng-

lande.

About the .ccxii. yeare Edwarde the kynges eldest sonne committed dyuers ryots, to the greate dyspleasure of his father, wherfoze the kynge emprisoned his sonne, and other that were of hys company.

The kyng
put hys son in prison.

Also, about the .ccxiii. yeare kyng Edward the fyrste.
Wales the Scottes was taken, and brought to London, and there put

A batall
at Scotland.

put to death. Anone after many Lordes and byshoppes of Scot-lande, came and yelded themselles to kynge Edward. But Roberte le Bruce, contrarie to hys othe, rebelled agaynste kynge Edward, and shortly after the kynge with a great hoste, wente into Scotlande, where he met wyth Robert le Bruce, at a place nyghe Saynct Johns towne, where was foughte a cruell battaye, the victorie fell to the Englyshmenne, and. vii. m. Scottes were slayne, and Robert le Bruce fled to the kynge of Norwaye, and dyuers Lordes were taken, who were sente to London and there put to death.

the death
of kynge Edward
the fyrste

In the. rrrv. yere, kynge Edwarde fell sycke, and dyed the vii. daye of Iulye, in the yere of of Christ. m. ccc. vii. and is bury-ed at westmyenster.

Ed

Edward the seconde.

Edward the seconde of that name, and son of the firste Edward, and prince of Wales, began his regne ouer England the .xxiii. day of februarie the yere of Christ .m. ccc. vii. and reigned .xviii. yeres, this Edward was faire of bodye, but bristefaste of maners, and dysposed to lyghtnes. For he refused the company of his Lordes, and men of honoure, and haunted among vylaynes and vyle persones, he gaue him selfe also to ouer much drynkyng, and lyghtlye woulde dysclose thynges of greate counsaile. And besydes that, he was geuen to these vyces of nature, what yll counsaile maye do. he was much worse by the counsaile & familiaritie of certayne euyl disposed personnes, as piers of Ga-

Ganeston, Hughe the Spencers and other, whose wanton counsaile he folowinge, gaue hym selfe to the apeteite and pleasure of the body, nothyng orderynge his common weale by sadnesse discrecion and Justice, whyche thinge caused fyrste great vary-ence betwene hym and hys nobles, so that shortly he became to theym odible, and in the ende was depriued of his kingedome.

The kyng
married

This king in the second yere of his reigne, went into Fraunce and maryed Isabell: doughter to Philyp le Belle kyng of Fraunce, and after wyth her returned into Englande.

priers of Ganestone
scheaded

Aboute this tyme, Priers of Ganestone be haued him selfe againste the Lordes, and war-ed so proude that he wold reuile theym, wherefore they sodenly rose, and besieged him in the castell kill of Scarbrough, and at the last wau it and toke Piers, and broughte hym to a place nere to Barwiche, and there stroke of his heade, wherwith the Kyng was greatly dyspleased.

About the .vi. yere of this kyng A bataille at Banockmyr.
Robert le Bruce, hearing of the murther, betwene theyr kyng & his Lordes, came againe into Scotland, and there was anit-ed kyng wherfore kyng Edwarde prepared a greate army, and went in to Scotlande, and here to a place called Banockmyr, he mete wyth the Scotes, where was betwene theyr cruel bataille, but the Englysh-men lost the felde, and many of the Lordes and greate men of Englande were slayne and taken and the kyng fled wyth greate dunger into Barwiche,

In the .ix. yere of kyng Ed-D. i. ward

The scot tes mōne barayne.

great plages in eng
lande

A battayl
at Mitton

Spencers
banished.

warde, the Scottes, wan Bat wyke, and shortly after, the entred Northumbrelande, and few man woman and chyld.

About this tyme there was great dearthe in England of all thynges, and after folowed g. pestilence, yet all these monitions mended not the kynge of this lynage.

In the .xi. yere of this kynge the Scottes entred Englande and at a place in the Myre called Mitton: was foughte cruell battayle, where the Eng lishmen lost the felde, and many people of the countrey slayne.
But the kynge was all ruled by Hugh Spencer, the father of the sonne, and the commons had the in great battered.

In the .xii. yere of this kynge there was a Parlyamente holden at London, wherby the en tre reatyng of the Lordes, Hughe Spencer the father, and Hughe Spencer the sonne, were banned oute of the realme. But it was not longe after, but the king: contrary to that ordinaunce made in the Parlyament, sente these Spencers agayne, and restored them in hyghe auctoryte.

Shortlye after, the Lordes rose agaynst the kynge, and at Slough byge the kynges Captayne called Andiewe of Hackemet wyth them were many of the Barons of England were slayne and taken, and after that the Earle of Lancaster, and dy-vers other of the Barons and nighthes were put to deathe.

In the .xvii. yere of thys kyng the queene the Quene fearyng the tyranny fledde the the Spencers, fled with her lande.
Kynge soone Edward in too aunce to her brother Charles:

D. ii.

where

A batall
at Slough byge.

where she and her son was ge tlye receyued of her brother whiche made greate promyse ayde her agaynste the tyranye the Spencers.

the quene
& her son druē out of france.

Shortly after, charles french kyng (fearynge the nassying of the byshop of Rome forsoke hys sisters quarell, and commaunded her to attoyde lande.

the quene
wyth her sō entred the lande.

In the .xix. yere of kyng watde, Quene Isabell and soone by che ayde and helpe Syr Thon of Henalde, wyth small compayne of Henoway returned into England, to me the nobles and commons thered in great numbze, and sued the kyng, the Spencers and other enemyes, so narrow that shortly after they tooke them, and kept the kyng in son at Kenelworth, the Sp ers, the Earle of Arundel. Robert Baldocke, and other Trayntes, whiche of longetyne had greued the realme were put to death.

¶ Edward the thyrde.

Edward the thyrde of that name, and ion to Edward the second and of Gloucestre, ducly daughter of Philippa of Belle, after the depesynge of his father, was crowned kynge the seconde daye of february, the yere of Christ. M.ccc. xxvi. when he was but fyften yeares of age he was a man of Excellent modestie and temperaunce, and advanced suche persones to hygh dignities, as dyde mooste pfectly in Integritye, and innocencye of lyfe. In feates of armes, he was very experte, as the noble prowes by hym achyued doe

D.iii. well well declare, as Froysart and other wyters doo declare at lage. Of hys lyberaltype and mency, he shewed many great amples, bypescely, in all pyncebertues he was so excellent, that fewe noble men before hys tyme may be to hym compared. At his begynnyng, he was chiefly ordined by syr roger mortymer, and hys mother Isabel.

The Scots entered
England.

In the fyrste yere of his reygne the Scottes entered England and the kynge wyth a great power came to the at the place of Sthanhope, and beset them rounde aboute, but by the trewe-son of Syr Roger Mortymer, the Scottes, eschaped wythoute tyle, whereby the kynge lost the byage and al hys charges.

The kynge
married.

Shortly after, at worke kynge married Phillip the earle doughter of Fenaude. The the kynge made peace wyth the scottes, and released too them theyr homage, and deliuered vnto theym theyr charter or indenture, called Ragman, as it was gyde by the counsaile of the olde quene and syr Roger Mortimer whiche anone after was made earle of Marche. And the olde quene and he tooke vpon them the rule, of the whole realme, whereby many thynges grewe out of order.

Peace
wyth the Scottes.

About the thyrde yere of thys kynge, the Earle of Kente, the de kynges brother, supposyng hys brother had bene a lyue, desired certayne lettres: for the de-liuerance of hys brother, wher-in he was accused, and by auc-toritie of Parliament condemned, and therfore was beheaded.

The earle of Kente beheaded.

In thys yere was borne at Woodstocke Prynce Edwarde, D.iiii. whiche ne.

prynce edward was whiche in processe of tyme, grew to a noble and famous man, and was in hys dayes counted the floure of Chiuatrie, throught out all the worlde,

Syr Roger Mortimer
be headed

In the fourth yeare of kyng Edwardes reygne, syr Roger Mortimer was accused for di uers poyntes of treason, and na melye that he was ouer famili ar wyth the olde Quene Ilabel the kynges mother, for whiche casions he was shortly after headed.

A hiage in to scotland

In the .vi. yeare kyng Edward ward went into Scotland wyth a greate power, and at a place called Baldowne hyl, gaue the Scottes battayle, where in he optayned a tryumphant victorie So that he slewe of them. viii. la Carles. ix. C. knightes and barons ronettes. cccc. Esquyers & xxxiiij. m. common souldyers. And of the

the Englyshemenne were slayne only, .xv. persones. At the same voyage he wan the towne of Edenboroughe and Barwycke, wyth manye other castels, and gaue the gouernaunce of Scot-lande too Edward Bayloly, be-twene whome and the Scottes were foughten manye battayls, wyth greate dyuersyte and chaunge of fortune.

After thys tyme the Scottes so often rebelled, that kynge Edward made, .iii. voyages in to that lande, wythyn the space of, .iiii. yeares. And wyth grate manhod alwaye vanquished hys enemyes, and caused theym to swear to hym faulte, and homage. In these battayles were slayne well nere all the nobylty of Scotlande, wyth insynpte numbre of the common people.
In the .x. yeaere, king Edward claymed

Scotland suffered much penurie.

have beween eng
lande and
fraunce.

claymed tittle to the Crowne of fraunce, wherefore open war was proclaymed betwene Eng-lande and fraunce.

good che-pe bittayl les in eng
lande.

About thys tyme as fabyan wryteth) by reason of scarstye of mony, was suche plentye of bittayles in Englande, that the lyke had not bene seene. For a quarter of wheate was solde for. ii. s. a fat gose for. ii. d. a pyg for a peny, a fat Ore for. vi. s. viii
d. a fat shepe for vi. d. or. viii. pens. vi. pygyons a penny.

Kyng Edward wot to atmarp where he was pro-
claymed
by car generall of thyspe.

In the. xii. yeare kyng Edward, prepared strongly to make warre into fraunce, and for sure stablyshment of Amitie, betwene hym and the Holanders. Selanders and Brabanders, sayled to Hanwerpe, where he concluded the mater wyth hys alyes, and by the consente of the Emperour Lewis, was proclaymed vicer general

generall of the empyre.

In the .xiii. yeare of kyng Ed. The kyng warde returned into Englande helde a pa and called hys parlyamente kament at westminster, and there by the ad uyce of the whole realme, tooke bpon hym the tytyle to be kyng of fraunce, and ioynded the armes of Englande too the armes of fraunce, a bare them quartely, as they yet continue, at which par lyament was graunted greate sommenes of money, to mayntaine hym in his warres.

In the .xiiii. yeare of kyng A battel Edwardes reygne, he saylynge on p sea towards Flanders nye to thee Hauen of Sluce, met wyth the frenche kynges nauye: where was foughte a cruell battayle wherof the kyng of Englande, had the byctory, and the frenche flete, that was in numbre .cccc. sale, was wel nere all destroyed and the souldiers taken, slayne, and drowned, so that of. xxxiiij. there escaped not one.

peace for
yeare.

Shortly after, kynge Edward wyth a myghty armye, bothe of Englande, and of the Empryce, entered fraunce, and besieged Corney, but shortly after (by the meanes of the countes of Henaud) mother to the Quene of Eng-lande, and syster to the frenche kynge, a peace was made for. xii. monethes, and kynge Edward returned into England.

the scots
estroube ed englan

In thys tyme, the Scottes (by the settinge on of the frenche men recouered a greate parte of that lande and in moste cruell wyle bered the Englyshe gary-sons.

The order of the garter first or-dayned.

In the. xviij. yeare, kynge Edwarde enuented and ordayned fyyste the order of the garter at Wynsoure.

Aboute thys tyme, the Earle

of

of Darby was sente into Gas-cogne, where he wonne dyuers townes and Castels, and befoze Anberoch the Earle of Darby by poley of sy: walter of Manni, with a. M. Englyshmen dyscomfited, and slew. x. M. french men and Gascoines, and tooke pysoner the Earle of Lay, they:
cheefe captayne, wyth dyuers other nobles: and subdued the countre.

Gascoigne
wonne

In the. xx. yeaere, kynge Edwarde wyth hys sonne Prynce Edwarde, sayled into Norman-dye, and ouer rode and spoyled the countre, euen to Paris and gathered wonderfull rycheesse & praies, whiche he sent into Eng-lande. Shortlye after, he encontered the frenche kynge nye to the fozest of Cressy, where betwene thē was fought a cruel battayle and kynge Edwarde obtayned
the

the batayle of Cressy

the victorie. In that battayle was slayne the floure of Chivalry of Fraunce. That is to saye the kynge of Boheme, with ten other greate Princes foure score Barons. xii. c. knightes and mo-than. xix. M. of the common soul-diers.

Calys
inne.

After this victorie the kynge went towarde Calis, & besieged the towne, the space of. xii. mo-neths durynge whiche seige the frenche kynge came to rayse the seige, but shortly after he departed wythout battayle, wherfore they of Calys yelded by the towne to king Edward.

the kyng
of scottes
taken pry-
soner.

In the time of the seige before Calys, Dauid of Scotland, by the settinge on of the frenche kyng warred on the borders of england. But the Quene asssembled a stronge armie, as wel of prysteis as lay men, & nere to Durham

ham toke in battayle, the kynge of Scottes prisoner, wth many of hys grettest Lordes & earles, & flew of þ common scudiers xv. m

About the .xxii. yeare of kynge Edwarde the .iii. there was a wonderful famyn and pestilence reigned throughout all þ worlde

In Italy scant the .x. persone of an. C. was left on lyue. In the cytte of Paris in Fraunce, dyed l. M. and in the cytte of London besyde the bodies buried in chur ches and church yardes, & mona steryes, and other places of bu ryall, there was buried in the Charterhouse churche yearde .l.
M. persons and aboue, as wyrt heth fabyan.

In thys yeare, the 'Capytayn calysidre of Callys conspyred to betraie to be de tagayne to the Frenchmen, the trayed, ystory wherof, declareth won derfullye the greate manhode poly

A great
death the roughout all the world.

for lads

1/2
1/2
1/2

pollicye, liberalytie, and gentelnesse of the noble kyng Edward, made frofard the. c. & v. Chapter of hys fyrste booke.

Aboute this tyme kyng Edward was elected to be Emper-our. But he cōsiderig þ trouble and vnquietnesse, refused it. And then they chose the Marques of Messena, whiche also refused it.

Gines yel-
ded to the englishmē In the. xxvii. yeare of kyng Edwardes reygne, the towne & castell of Gynes was yeldded too the Englyshmenne.

A b'age in to gascoine In the. xxix. yeare of kyng Edwardes reygne, Prynce Edwarde of Wales, with a stronge companye of souldeyrs, passed into Gascoine, where he made foze war, and destroied Castels and townes befoze hym wyth great successe, and tooke the castell and towne of Riche morentynne tyne with other.

About thys tyme, kynge Edward the firste sailed to Calis, and began to make war upon Fraunce, but shortly after he returned, because the Scottes rose, & inuaded the Englysh borders.

In the. xxx. yeare of kynge Edwardes reigne, Wyntice Edward of Wales, nye to the Citie of Poytiers ioynded battayle wyth kyng Ihon of Fraunce, on whome the Wyntice wan a noble victorie. In thys conflycte kynge John was take wyth hys yonge sonne Philippe, there were taken. ix. earles, the archbishop of Sens, and manye othtr greate Lordes, Baronettes and knyghtes, and men of name, to the nūbre of. xvi. c. and ther were slaine the Duke of Burgonie, the duke of Athes, sp. Ihon Cleremond, Marshal of Fraunce wyth ma-

Ariage in
to fraunce

The battyle of Poytiers.

The frech king take prisoners.

E. i.

ne npe baronettes, knyghtes, and menne yf armes, to the number of. xvi. C. and. iii. M. of other meane persones. And after thys felde thus wonne, the Prynce with hys prysoners returned too burdeaux. And shortly after they sayled into England where they were of kynge Edward, no bely receyued.

A viage in
to fraunce.

In the. lxxiii. yere, king Edwarde wyth the Prynce hys sonne, went to Calys, and so into fraunce, wher he made sharyp warre, and burned and destroyed the countrey wythoute mercey.
But shortly after by greate entreaty, there was a peace concluded on thys condicion, that kynge Edward shoulde haue to hys proper possession, the countreys of Gascoygne and Guion, Poptyers, Lymolyn, Beleunle, Ex-anctes, Calys, Guines, and dy-uers

ners other Lordeshippes towers, Castels, and all the landes to them belongynge, wythoute knowledge of anye soueraygne beylaunce, homage, or subiecti-on for the same, and that the frenche kynge shoulde paye for hys raunsome, in Millions of scutes, whych amounte to. b. c l. ii. and so kyng John was de-pyered.

The frenche
king raunsomed.

In the. xxxvii. yeare of kynge Edwarde, kyng John of fraunce came into Englande of hys free will to spozte hym, and hadde resyd chere. And shortly after dyed at the Sauoy at London.

the death
of the fren-che kyng.

In thys yeare also, Prynce Edwarde tooke possession of the duchy of Guyen, & Aquitayne, and dyd homage to his father for the same.

prince Edward made duke of Guyen.

About the. xl. yeare of kynge Edward, Dampeter of Spayne C. ii. was

A batalle in Spaine

was expelled hys realme, by his basterd brother Henry, where fore he fled to Prynce Edward whiche was then at Burdeaux.
But thys Peter, by the ayde of Prynce Edward, foughte wyth hys brother Henry and put hym to flyght, and slew .v. M. of hys men. And restored Peter to dy-uerse cities & holdes, whiche he before hade losse, But not longe after the Prynce returned home and Henry repayred hys armye and warred vppon hys brother so fearselfe that in the ende, he biterly banquethed hym to deeth and then without resistance pos-

Charge in to France

sessed the kyngdome of Spayne.
In the .xlii. yeare of kyng Edward, new variaunce began betwene England and Fraunce wherfore the duke of Lancaster was sente wyth an armye into Fraunce, and nere vnto Arde, he Duke of Burgoyne lodged within a myle of the Englyshe army, the space of. xviij. dayes, and neuer profered battayle, but at the laste stole awaye pryuelye e nyghte, and then entred the duke further into fraunce as rosart she weth at large.

In the. xliiij. yeare, syr Robert Knols entred the realme of fraunce wyth a stronge army, and wasted & destroyed the coun-tre, and passed euen by Barps, enged in battayle and wythout ynotable battayle returned.

Aboute the. xlv. yeare, the frenchmen made sharpe warre in Gien, and many dyuers skyrres were betwene the french men and the Englyshemen, but ofte commonly alwayes the englyshmen losse, and the Citie Limoge and other cytyes resided agaynst Prynce Edward.

great battaye in gascogne,

C.iii.

Wherefore

wherefore Prince Edward perceyvinge all this, and what for lacke of money, and what for sickness & maladies that he had departed into England, leuyng behynde hym his brotherne, the Duke of Lancaster, and the earl of Cambrige, to rule Gascoyne but soone after they came into Englande.

Abatelen
the sea,

In the .xlii. yeare of King Edwardes reygne, the Earle of Penbroke was sent with a great army to fortify the towne of Bachel. But he was mette on the Sea, wyth a company of Spannyardes, betwene whome there was a cruell fyghte, but the Englyshemen were discomfited and the earle of Penbroke was there taken with a .c. lx. mo prisoners, and the mooste parte of his menne slayne and drowned. And soone after, the towne

Rochell was yelded to the french men.

Also in the. xlvii. yere the Duke of Lancaster landed at Calles wyth amyghte armye, & passed throughe Fraunce, robyng and spoylynge, the countre, euen to burdeaux, and were neuer fought wyth, saue onelye at askymyshe they losse. l. speeres. and. xx. archers.

In the. l. yere of thys kinge, there was suche sykenes and mortalyte, aswel in Italy as in Englande, that innumerable of people dyed.

In the. li. yere, Prynce Edward of England, departed out of thys lyfe, whowas in hys tyme the floure of Chivalrye, and was buryed at Canturbury.

Also in the same yere, the. ii. daye of June, the yere of E. iiii. Christ the death of kynge Edward.

Christe. a. M. ccc. lxxvi. Kyng Edwarde dyed, and is buried at Westminster. This king Edward when he dyed had foure sonnes, that is to saye Lyonell Duke of Clarence John of Gaunte, duke of Lancaster, Edmond of Langley Duke of yorke and Thomas of Bedstocke, earle of Cambryge.

Rychard the second.

Rychard the seconde of the name, and son to prince Edward, eldest son to kyng Edward the thyrde beyng of yeares of age was crowued kyng of Englande the. xv. daye of July. the yeare of Christe a. M. ccc. lxxvii.

The fren chemenne entered in England

In the fyrste yeare of kyng Rychardes reygne, the frenche kyng sente a grete nauye to the sea, whiche entered in diuers partes of this realme, and dyd much much harme wher they landed and at the laste came into Cha-mes, and so to Graues ende, and brente parte of that towne, and returned into Fraunce agayne.

About this tyme the Earle of Cambraye, the kinges vncle was sent into Fraunce wyth, bish. M. menne, and passed the water of Summe, and so forth to Troie and wan it, and so passed to the countre of Gascoine, and so into Brytayne, where syr John of Bounforde, Duke of Brytayne gladly receyued them.

In the .v. yeare of thys kynge the commons of England arose and specially in Essex and Kent and made theym capitaynes, of whome the chiefe they called Jacke strawe, whiche came into the towre of London, where the kynge was and there they tooke the archebishop of Cantorbury,

A kynge to traunce

Jacke
Strawe

bury the lord of saint Johns, & a fryer the kynges confessor, and at the towerhyll, smote of theyr heades, & slew and robbed all straungers, in Southwarke and brente the Duke of Lancasters place, called the Sauoye, and dyd muche hurt and beyng assembled in Smythfelde, vled theim selves very proudelye and vnrreuerentlye agaynst the kyng But by the manhode and wysedome of wylliam Waulworth Jacke Mayre of Londō, that rude com-panye was deceyued and thyr Capytayne Jacke strawe, was slayne.

Jacke
strawe
slayne

A grete earthquake be.

About thys tyme was a wonderful great earthquake in Eng-lande, the lyke whereof was neuer seene before that daye, nor synce.

In the .vii. yere of kyng Ry-charde, Henry Spencer, byshop
of

of Norwiche went into Flaunders, at the commaundement of the byshope of Rome, wyth a greate power, and wan Dunkyrke, and Brauelyn, and brenteschippes, and muche goodnes beyng with in theym, but after: there fell a dysease of the fyxkes and other dysleases amonge his shoulvers, that he was fayne to retorne in to England.

Avynges to 10 flanz dezes

In the. viii. yere kynge Rycharde maryed the doughter, of Gauncelaus, Emperoure of Almayne.

The kynge
maryed.

In the. x. yere of this king the Erle of Arundell was sente in to Guyan, to strengthe the souldiers there, but one the sea he mette wyth a floke of Flemminges, ladē wyth Rochell wine and set vppon theym, and tooke them. Amonge the whiche was ta

A bataill
on the sea for

for

A variat ce between the kynge
and hys
lordes &
commons.

taken the Admirall of Fraunce, In the .xi. yeare, there was maruaylous greate trouble and diseencion in England, betwene the kynge and his counsaile, and other nobles and prelates of the realme. The commons, by the ayde and comfort of the Kynge bncles, and other Lordes of the realme that is to say: the Duke of Glocester, the Duke of York, the earles of Darby, of Arundel and nothingham) put to deathe dyuers of the Kynge's counsaile and chiefe offycers, and chased the Duke of Ireland, and other out of the realme, for that they caused the Kynge to burden hys people with exactions, and could make no iust accōpt of the same, when they were requyred.

The liber
tes of london loste.

In the .xb. yeare there was a ryot in London, wherfore the kynge sealed the lybertye of the citie

citie into hys handes. But shortly after by meanes of the Quene and doct<sup>r</sup> Grauesend, b<sup>y</sup>shop of London they were restored to they<sup>r</sup> liberties.

In the. xviij. yeare, kynge Rycharde made a vyage into Irelande, whiche was more to hys charge then honoure.

In the. xxii. yeare, Henry Boling broke, duke of Hereforde. & sonne to the duke of Lancaster, and the duke of Norfolke, were banished out of the realme.

Shortlye after, Henry Bolyn broke duke of Harford, whych was banished into Fraunce, be<sup>y</sup>ge sent for of the Londoners, came into England with a smal power, to whome the commons gathered in so greate multytude, and forsoke they<sup>r</sup> Prynce, that not longe after, at the Castell of Flynte, they tooke kynge Rycharde

A voyage
to ireland

Henry the
iii. banished.

King Richard the
ii. deposed

chard, and held him as prysoner in the tower of London, where he yelded by and resygned to the sayde Henry: Duke of hereforde all hys power and kynglye tittle, to the crowne of Englande and Fraunce, knowledgyng, that he was worthely deposed for his de merytes and mysgouernynge of common weale.

Henry the fourth.

Henry the fourth, son to Iohn of Graunte, Duke of Lancaster, and thyrde sonne of Edward the thyrde,
tooke possession of thys realme of Englande, the laste daye of Septembre, in the yeaere of oure Lorde .M.ccc.lxxxix.

Anno domini. M.ccc. lxxxix.
Anno pryncis Henrys. iiii. Thomas knowelles Grocer mair.
Wylliam

Wylliam Wyde, william walderne
Shryffes.

In thys yeare dyed Kyng Ry-chard the seconde. In thys yeare also, certayn Dukes and Carls of Englande and other, were accorded to make a munnyng on twelve daye at nyghte, traytherously too kyll the Kyng, then being at Wyndsoze, whiche being warned thereof, departed sodaynly, and came to London, and made pursute after the sayd conspiratours, which apprehended and taken, were after by the lawe put to death. In thys yeare Kyng Henry, sente syr Thomas Berke, Earle of Worcester, with goodlye crue of souldiers, into Iquitayne, to ayde syr Roberte Howls, leuetenaunte there, and to perswarde the people to their obeyssaunce, who dyd greatly so-lame the death of Kyng Richard

A conspiracye a-gaynste
the kyng.

A iage in to quit-tayne,

In

An act of parliamēt

In thys yere was enacted by aucthoryte of Parliamente, that no Lorde, nor other manne myghte geue anye gownes, or li-ueries to anye of theyr tenantes, or other persones onelye but to theyr houlholde, & menpal seruauntes.

An other acte.

In thys yere also was enacted, that all reppers, and other yslers from Rye, Winchelsea, and other costes of the sea syde should sel theyr fish theyr selte in Corneyl Chepe, & other stretes of London, to al men that wold bye theym, fishmangers, and al other that would bye the sayde fysh, to make sayle agayne of onely except.

Anno domini. M. cccc. anno. ii. Henry. iii. John Fraunce Goldmyth mayre. John Walele, Wyllyam Ebot Myrystes.

In thys yere, the French

kyng

kyng sent Lord James of Bur-bone wyth. xii.c. knightes and The frech squieres, to ayde Owen Glendowr men made a squier of wales, agaynst kyng a voyage in Henry, and landed at Plum- to englan mouthe in Deuenshyre, who shortly after, to hys greate losse and shame rettyred bakke into fraunce.

In thys yere, a Pryor and viii. friers were hanged at Ti-burne for treason.

Anno. do. M. cccc. i. anno ter-cio, Henrici quarti. Thon Shadwort mayre, John frenkingham wylliam wrenor scryffes.

In thys yere was sene in a blasing Englande, a comete or blasynge starre starre, of a huge quantite.

Anno do. M. cccc. ii. anno quarto Henrici quarti. Thon walcot mayre, Rycharde Darlewe, Robert Chicheley, scryffes.

In thys yere was the battyle

f. l.

Chicheley

taile of Howesbury.

Anno do. M. cccc. iij. an. quyn-to, hēryci quarti. Wyllyam Al-ham mayre. Thomas sawconer, Thomas Pool hy: p̄es.

Recommencyon in york shire

In thys yere began a commocyon in yorke shire, but the y entent was knowē, and for that treason was apprehended Ry-chard Scrope, Archebyschop of york, the Earle Marshall, sy Jhon Lampley, sy Robert plun-tō, who in whytson weke were beheaded at york.

The price of scotland taken pay-
soner.

In thys yere the Kyng of Scottes sent his son the prynce into Fraunce, but by violence of wether was dreuen into Eng-lande, where he contynued pry-soner many yeres after.

Anno domi. M. cccc. iiii. an. vi.
Hentici. iiii. John hynde draper mayre. Wyllyam Lowte, Stephan Spilman hy: p̄es,

Anno

Anno do. M. cccc. v. an. vii. Hen-rici. iiii. Thon woodcoke Mayre Henry Barton, Wyllyam Crowner Myrres.

Anno do. m. cccc. vi. an. octauo Henrici quartii, Richard de wittington mercer mayre. Nicolas wott, Gesser Broke Myrres.

Anno do. m. cccc. vii. an. ix. Hen-rici quartii. Wyllyam Standon, mayre. Henry Ponfrie, Henry Dalton, Myrres.

Anno domi. m. cccc. viii. an. x.
Henrici quartii. Diewe Barentine goldmyth maire, Thomas duke, William Norton, Myrres.

Anno do. m. cccc. ix. an. xi. Hen-rici quartii. Richard Marlowe Brennonger mayre, John Laws Wylliam Chichely Myrres.

Anno do. m. cccc. x. an. xii. Hen-rici quartii. Thomas Knols gro-uer mayre, John penne, Thomas

A. ii.

Pike

Pyke Shryffes.

This yeare was a byll put into the Parlyament, agaynste the spiritualty, for wastynge of the temporalty.

Anno dom. M. cccc. xi. an. xiii.
Henrici quarti. Robert Chichely grocer mayre. John Keynwell, wylliam Cotton Shryffes.

Anno do. M. cccc. xii. an. xiiii.
Henrici quarti, wylliam wal-derne marcer mayre, Raufe Le-ynggham, wylliam Seuenoke Shryffes.

the death
of kynge
henry the fourth.

In thys yeare kynge Henry the fourthe dyed the. xx. daye of Marche, in the yeare of our Lorde. a. M. cccc. xii. And when he had reigned. xiii. yeares fyve monethes, and one and twenty dayes, and lyeth buried at Can-turburpe.

Henry the fyfth.

Henry the fyfte began hys raygne the .xci. daye of Marche, in the yeare of oure Lorde, next aboue mencioned,
And was crowned at westminster, the nyynth daye of Apryll folowynge . In the yeare of oure Lorde. M. cccc. xiii.

In this yere was a general counsaile holden at Coustance, <sup>A general counsaile</sup> bpon the ryuet of Keyne, to the whyche counsaile was sent Ry-charde Earle of warwyke and three byshoppes, wyth dyuers doctours, knyghtes and Squyers, to the number of. viii. c. hoses.

In thys counsaile were condemned to deathe for heresye.
Thon wycliffe, Thon Bute, and Jeram of prage.

In this yeare for Thon Olde the Lord castell, Lorde Cobham, to assa- <sup>combhac</sup> A. iii, <sup>case of</sup> cused heresye.

cused to the Archebyschope of Ca torburge for certayne poyntes of heresy.

Anno do. m. cccc. xiii. an. i. hen-rici quinti, wylliam walderne mayre, Raufe Levingham, wyll-iam Seuenocke, byrisses.

Anno do. m. cccc. xiiii. anno. ii Henrici quinti. William Crowner mayre. Thon Sutton, Thon Mychell byrisses.

Analia :
mēc holdē at Leicester

In thys yeare, in Apryll was holden a parlyment at Leyceter, in the whiche Parlymente were cōcluded many profytable lawes, and amonge other thyn-ges was a byll put into the par-liamē house, against þe spiritual ty, & was lyke to take effect, but thā þe Bishoppes & Abbotes moued the kynge to make war into fraunce for hys tytles there, so þe in al his time after, he had neuer leser to speake therof moze. And al so

to warde that biage was graū ted by the spiritualty, such a pay mēt as had not ben payed before.

Anno do. M. cccc. xv. an. tertio Henryci quinti. Thomas Fawco ner mercer mayre. John Wy chel, Thomas Blayne Wyppes.

This yere the kyng dyd pre- a conspi pare an armye into Fraunce of race a b. C. Wyppes, and the daye be- gaynt fore he shold departe frō South the kyng hampton certayne Lordes dyd conspire the kynges deathe for the whyche conspiracye, was apprehended Rycharde Earle of Cambryge, the Lorde Scrope, and sye Thomas Gray knyght, who at y time of theyr execucion confessed that they were sette a worke by the French kyng. And after theyr execucion the king set forward, and on the vigil of the assumptiō of our lady, he wyth all his nauy landed at Kid Caur in

f. iiii.

Normā

The wyngz of Derflewz
the battel of ageyn gonre.
Normandye. And on the nexte daye he besieged the towne of Derflewme, and the .xxxbii. day after, the sayde towne was yelded to the kyng.

In thys yeare in October, was the battayle of Agyncourt which victorie, by the only prouisi-on of God fell too the Englysh-men, for kyng Henry had in hys battaile, but only two, M. horse men, and .xii. thousande fote men of all sortes. And on the frenche partye were almoste all the nobilitie of Fraunce wyth. lx. M. horsemen besyde fotemen There were slayne on the frenche par-tie aboue. x. M. persones, wherof were prynces and nobles beryng baners. C. xxbi, and all the remnaunte, sauynge. xbi. C. were knyghtes, Esquiers and gentelmen. And on the Englyshe part were slayne, Edward Duke of porke porke, the Earle of Suffolke, Syr Richard Kycheley, and Dany Gā-me esquier, and of all ather, not aboue .v.oz. vi. c. persons.

Anno domi. m. cccc. xvi. an. iiii Henrye quyntie. Nicolas wottō diaper mayre, williā Cambrydge Alayne Cuerarde thyrpys.

This yeare in Maye the Em-peroure Sigismonde came in to Englande, to treate of a peace betwene kynge Henrye and the frenche kynge, and was nobely receyued, but hys labour tooke small effecte.

This yeare was Harflewe besieged by the french men both by water and lande, but incontinent, the kynge sent hys brother the Duke of Bedforde wyth a noble army and on the sea encoutered the frenche nauy, in num-bre .v. C. thyrpys, whych were by the Englyshemen discomfyted
and

The Em-
perour came into England.

Harflewe
bestegen.

A battal-le on the sea.

and almost all take or drowned, and when the armye by lande knewe, that the Navy by Sea was dyscomfyted, rayled theyre sege and departed.

An. do. m. cccc. xlii. an. quyn-to Henrici. v. Henry Barton Shin-ner mayre, Robert whitington, John Couentre myrystes.

Boysage in to Normā dy.

This yeare in July, the kynge accompanied wyth hys brethzen the Dukes of Clarence & Gloucester, wyth a noble army, made a boyage into Normandye and wonne Caen wyth the castell, and in conclusion: what by force and renderynge by, wan almoste al the holdes of Normandye.

Anno do. m. cccc. xliii. an. vi.
Henrici quinti. Rycharde War-lowe yrenmonger maire, Herye Rede, John Gedney, myrystes.

In thys yeare, by John Oldcastell knyghte, lorde Cobham was hanged in chaynes, and af-der brente.

In thys yere, the laste daye of Julye, the cyty of Roan was besieged, bothe by water and by land, in so much, that by reason offamyn they were compelled to fall to treaty, and so the .xix. daye of January, the cytye was yelded to the kynge. And immediately after, all Normandye yelded them selves also.

An, do, M, cccc, xix and septimo, Henrici quinti, wylliam Senenocke grocer mayre. Thon Brian, Raufe Berton, Thon parues Wyryffes.

In thys time of thys warre in fraunce there was great variance betwene the nobles of fraunce, and specially betwene the Dolphin, the Duke of Burgon, and the Duke of Orleans with other, & there was a place appoynted to mete, to treat for

The city of Roan besieged.

variance betwene the lordes of
fraunce

a peace, & thether came the Dolphin, and the duke of Burgoyne, and the sayde Duke, knelyng on hys knees: tellynge hys tale to the Dolphin, one Cauagny duchastell smote the duke one the heade wyth a hatchet, and so most shamefully was murderede.

A communication for a peace

In thys yere there was a communication for a peace be-twene Englande and Fraunce, but it tooke small effecte, wherefore the kynge wente forwarde wyth hys conquest and sente an armye to Ponthoyse, and wyth force wan it, to the greate feare of þe Parysience, and all fraunce.

Whitholfe
monne.

Anno do. m. cccc. xx. anno. vii.
Henrici quinti, Rycharde Whytetyngham mercer maye, Robert Whitingam, John Butler speryffes.

In this yere, in Maie was concluded a peace, betwene the kynge

king of England and the french kyng, so that kyng Henry dyd marry lady Katherin, the french kynges doughter at Troyes in Champaigne, after whiche ma-riage kyng Henry was proclaimed heire and regent of Fraunce.

In this yere at Christmas the kyng of England kept such a noble house in Roan, as Regēt of Fraunce, that to hys court al men resorted, and fewe too the frenche kynges court, and after Christmas he ordeyned hys brother Duke of Clarence, hys lieuetenaunte generall, bothe of Fraunce and Normandy, and on the morow after candelmas day the kyng and the Quene tooke hypppyng at Callys, and landed at Dover, and on saint Ma-thewes daye folowynge, the Quene was crowned at Westminster.

The kyng
returned to englan

Anno

Anno do. M. cccc. xxi. an. ix. Herici quinti, william Cambridg grocer mayre. John Butler, william weston thyriffes

the death
of the Duke of
clarence.

In this yeaere the duke of Clarence made arode into Anio we, where by a lumbard he was betrayed, and so was slayne wyth dyuers noble men moze.

A biage in
to fraunce

Also in thys yeaere in Maye the kynge passed the sea with a noble armye into fraunce, and pursued the Dolphin in such wise, that he could scant fynde any place to hyde him selfe in.

the birth
of kynge
henry the fyrste.

In thys yeaere the kynge beseged the cytye of Meas in bry. durynge whiche syege was bozne at wynsore the kynges sonne named Henry.

Anno do. m. cccc. xxi. an. x. herici quinti, Robert Chychelpe, grocer mayre, Rycharde Gosselin william weston thyriffes.

In

In thys yere Kyng Henry the fyth dyed the .xxi. daye of August. In the yere of oure Lorde. nexte aboue mencioned, when he had reigned. ix. yeares and fyue monethes, and xliii. dayes, and lyeth buried at westmyster.

the death
of kyng
henry the fyfte.

Henry the fyfte.

 Henry the fyfte begane hys raygne the fyfte daye of September in the yere of our Lorde next aboue mencioned. And was crowned at westmyster, in the eyghte yere of hys regne, all whiche tyme before for insufficiency of age, he was admytted to the rule of hys uncle, the Duke of Bedforde and Glocester, he was of the age of viii. monethes and odde dayes, and not aboue.

Anno domini. m. cccc. iii. anno primo Henrici sexti. Wylliam mal walderne mayre, wylliam Cæfeld, Robert Tatersale, Myrptes.

This yere was the Duke of Glocester made protector of England, and the Duke of Bedforde. Regent of Fraunce which Regente lyke a noble captayne, mayntented the warre agaynst the Dolpin so longe as he lyued.

Anno do. m. cccc. xliii. anno secundo Henrici sexti, wylliam Cromer draper mayre, Nicolas James, Thomas wadforde Myr-ptes.

A bat alle
of bernol le.

In this yere, the Duke of Bedford regent of Fraunce, made war vpon the Dolphin of Fraunce and vnto Englyshmen fell the victory at the battayle of Vernoyle where were viii. thousand Frenche men slayne.

James kynge
of scottes
delivered

Also i this yere was James Stewart kynge of Scottes delivered, whyche was prisoner ner in Englande longe tyme before, who for the realme of Scot-lande dyd homage to the Kyng of England & married the ladye Jane, doughter to the Earle of Somerset, & colyng to the kyng Anno do. m. cccc. xxb. an. tercio herici sexti, John Michel mayre Simon Seman, John Wythwa-ter myzys.

In thys yeare the duke of Glocester protectoure of Englande, ente vnto his brother the Regente of fraunce. x. M. men, to mayntayne warre agaynste the Dolphin.

Abage in
to france

In thys yere also was a battyle at the nyale in Berch, be-twene the Regent & the duke of Alaunūson, the victorie fell to the Englyshemen, where were slayne of the Frenchmen & Scotes. ix. M. and vii. c. and of Eng-lyshemen, xvi. C.

The bat-
tyle of vernoile & Berche.

G. l.

An.

Anno dom. m. cccc. xxvi. an. iiii.
Henry. vi. John Couëtre mercer mayre. wyllyam Mylred, Thon Brokely Shyryfes.

In thys yeare began a great variacion in England, betwene the noble menne of the Realme, for the Byschoppe of Winchester, dyd enuye the Lorde Protector, in so muche that the lord Regent of Fraunce was fayne to come in to Englande to set them at one.

Anno domi. M. cccc. xxvii. an. quinto Henry. sexti. Thō Kain-well Shymonger mayre, Robert Arnolde, John Heygham Shyryfes.

Anno do. M. cccc. xviii. anno sexto Henrici sexti. John God-ney draper mayre, Robert Del-Henry Frowike Shyryfes,

Oulleaue
b: sieged.

In thys yeare was Ouleaue besyged by the Englyshe men and as sy: John Fastolfe, went fro from Paris, towarde the armye wyth bittailles, there mete hym an armye of frenchemen, where after long conflyet, the Englysh-men obtayned the victoꝝ, where were. xxb. C. frenchemen slayne and. xii. C. taken prysoners.

Anno do. M. cccc. xxi. an. septimo henrici sexti. Henry Berton kyner mayre, Thomas Duhous, Raufe Holande wyppes.

In thys yeare, the syege brake up befoze Orlaunce, and wanne manye townes, as Geneuple, Meum, and Fort, wyth dyuers other, and as the Lorde Talbot, was commynge to meum, wyth b. M. menne, he was incountred with an armye of frenchemen, to the number of. xxiii. m. where was taken prysoners the Lorde the Lord Talbot, & the lord of scales, wyth talbot to other. And of Englyshemen were ken prys-slayne xii. c. persōs, to the great re soner,

G. ii. toylrynge lynge of the Dolphyn an other of hys facte.

In thys yere also, after thys vyctory, the Dolphyn raysed an army and wan by composicion Troyes in Campayne, and the citie of Raynes, wyth dyuers other townes and castels whyche Dolphin had in hys camp, Jone Of Jone a stout raumpe, whiche the frech the wyche men dyd call la Pucelle de Dieu, y maide of God. And afterward in thys same yere was the Dolphin sacred kyng of Fraunce at Raynes, in the presence of al the noble me of hys faction, and the Dukes of Lozayne and Barre, by the name of Charles the syxt.
The duke And the duke of Bedford, Reof bedford gent of Fraunce, beyng at Paris pursueth hearde of thys doynges of the Dolphi first place frenche kyng, wyth a noble ar-to place. mye of Englyshmen and For-mans pursued hym from place to place, til he came to Sendes in Barre, where bothe armyes might se other, & after bothe armies had lime i ech others sighte ii. daies, the frenche kyng, lyke a carpet capitaine, in the deade of the nyght brake bp hys armye, & fled to Bray, whych whē the Regent perceiued mistrustynge the waueryng Parisians, returnede with his armye to Paris.

In thys yeaere, by the procure Men sent ito fraunce ment of the byshop of Rome, He ry Beufor, Cardynall of Wynchester, commonlye called the ryche Cardynall, was sent into Beame with.iiii. M. men to reuenge the byshop of Rome, but when he came to Douer he was countremaunded bi the lord pro-tectour, and went into fraunce, to helpe the Regent against the french kyng.

Anno do. m. cccc. xxx. an octauo

Hen-

Henrici sexti. Wyllyam Estfeld mercer mayre. Wyllyam Kuffe Raufe Holand Myrffes.

Parliamment at.
Roan.

In this yeaere, the Regent of Fraunce leste the gouernaunce of Paris to the byshop of Elve, chaunceler of Fraunce, and the sayde Regent helde Parliament at Roan anymatynge the Dor-mans to theyr obeyssaunce to the kyng of Englayd. &c. At whyche season, the Frenche kyng sente the Duke of Alounson, and hys loceres Jone, the great goddess of the Frenchemen to scale Pa-rys, frome the whiche they were beatē to theyr great lose & theyr capytayne Jone was throwne into the dykes and had muche worke to saue her lyfe,

A scalynge of parys

In thys viii. yeaere kynge henry the sixt was crowned at westminster.

Anno. M. cccc. xxxi. an nono

Hen

Henrici sexti. Nicolas wauton mayre, water Charly, Roberte Large Shyrriffes.

In thys yeare dyd Phylippe <sup>The cyder</sup> Duke of Burgon, marrye Lady <sup>of the gol</sup> Isabel doughter to John kyng <sup>den flece</sup> of Portingale, and greate aunte to the kyng of England, at whych the marpage the sayde duke ordeined the golden flece.

In thys yeare in Decembre, Jone the the Englyshmenne besyged the <sup>pucel biēt</sup> towne of Lagny, in the whiche <sup>at Roan,</sup> the Pucel was capytayne wyth other, who pssued oute to skyr, mythe with the Englyshmen & Burgonnyons, at whiche skyr, mythe Jone the Pucel was taken, and after was sente too the Duke of Bedeford to Roā, wher after longe examinacyon was went to ashes.

Anno do. m. cccc. xxxii. an. decimo Henrici sexti. John Welles, G. iiii. grocer grocer mayre. John Aldryle, Steuens browne wyrrythes.

Kyng Henry the fyrte crowned kynge of fraunce in Paris.
In thys .x. yeare, kynge Henry the fyrte was crowned at Paris, whiche is the chiefe cite in all fraunce with great triumphe and nobilitie.

A peace concluded.
After Kyng Henry was crowned kinge of fraunce, he kept a noble house, fyrst at Paris: and after at Roan in whiche tyme there was peace concluded for .vi. yeares, betwene the Englishmen and the Frenchmen, whiche peace within short tyme, by the frenchmen was broken.

Anno domini. M. cccc. xxxiii. an. xi. Henrici sextye. John Perueis fyshmōger mayre, John Olney, John Paddis wyrrythes.

The peace broken.
In thys yeare, the peace in fraunce was broken, wherfore on both parties were armyes set forth, and townes fortified, and when

when the frenchemen could not auayle, they sent forth theyr accustomed seruaunte, called mayster Treason, and corrupted Piers. Andebeuffe, Constable of the Castel of Roan with money that the Marcyal of Fraunce with. ii C. persones disgysed, did entre the Castell of Roan, but they were soohe espyed, & so some of theym were slayne some hanged, and some raunsoned at the Regētes pleasure.

Anno. do. m. cccc. xxxiii. an. xii Henryci sexti. Thon Brokely draper mayre. Thomas Challon, John Lynge Wyryffes.

In thys yere, the commons of Normandy mayde insurrection, bi the setting on of the French kyng, but they were shortly suppressed, & many of them slayne.

The commons of normandy
rebelled.

In this yere was John duke of Burbon deliuered out of pry-son

The duke of burbon
delivered
out of prison.

son whiche had ben prisoner in Englande syns the battayle of Agyncourte. xviii. yeares before and payed for hys ransome. xviii M. pounde starlynge.

A variaun-
ce betwene
the regent & the duke of Burgoyne.

In thys yeares also began a varyaunce, betwene the Regent of Fraunce and the Duke of Burgoyne to the losse of Englande, and no gayne to Burgony.

Anno do. m. cccc. xxxv. an xiii.
Henrici. sexti Robert Oclep grocer mayre. Thomas Barnewel, Simon Eyre. Shyppes.,

A greete
froste

This yeare was a great frost, that endured from the feast of saynct Katherine, unto the feast of saynct valentyne, so that neither shyp might sayle, nor botte be rowed one the ryuer of Thames, and therfore all the vintage was caried to London by lande in Cartes.

In thys yeare was concluded a peace

a peace betwene the fienche, kyng and the Duke of Bur. A peace be gony, to the greate dyspleasure <sup>twene the</sup> and losse of Englyshman. <sup>frenche</sup>

In this yeare dyed the no- <sup>the duke</sup> ble Duke of Bedforde Regent <sup>of burgoy</sup> of fraunce and lyeth buried in the death our ladye church at Roan, in of fregt whose stede was elected Regent <sup>of fraunce,</sup> of fraunce. Rycharde Duke of yorke.

Anno do. m. cccc xxxvi. and. xliii Henrici tertii. Henrye growpke mercer mayre. Thomas Cat-worth, Robert Clopton Shy.

In this yeare, the Parysio- <sup>paris long</sup> ners rebelled agaynst the Englishmen, and so rendered by the citie of Parys into the freuche mens handes, and slew many of the Englyshmenne. that kepte the ctyte.

In this yere the Duke of Bur <sup>Calys brs</sup> goyne, with an armye of. xl. M. <sup>seage</sup>
men

men, dyd laye seage to Callys, And during this seage, the duke sent the lorde of Croy wyth a co ueniente armye to laye seage to Guines, who got there but smal gaynes.

Bynes be sieged.

The duke broke by his siege & fled by nyghte,

Shortlye after it was noised in the Campe of the Duke, that the lorde Protectour of Englād was shyped wyth a great army to come to Calys to raise the sea ge, and sodaynlye in the nyghte the duke of Bourgoyne rayled hys seage, and lyke wyse sente to Guines for the lorde Croye, and lyke a valiaunt Capytayne fled awaye by night, and on the nexte daye in the mornynge, the lorde protectoure came to land, and en tered the campe of hys enemyes but they were gone and had left behynde them theyr Tentres, or dynaunce, and bytayles, and all that they had,

Ann

Anno. do. m. cccc. rrrbii. an. rb.
Henrici. sexti. Thon Michel maire Thomas worsted wylliam Gregore shirysles.

Anno do. M. cccc. rrrbiii. an. rbi.
Henrici sexti wylliam Estfelde mercer mayre. wylliam Chapmā wylliam Hales shirysles.

In thys peare, the Earle of Warwyke was made Regente of Fraunce, & the Duke of yorke discharged whiche Earle, after hys aryuall in Fraunce dyd ma-nye noble feates, as Halle wyrt-teth at large.

The earle
of warwicke
made regent.

Anno do. m. cccc. rrrir. an. rbi Henrici sexti. Steuen Browne groter mayre, Hugh, Duke, Nicolas yeo, shirysles.

In thys peare, by reason of br-temperat wether, there was a greate derth in England, so that wheate was at. iii. shyllynge

A dearthe in englat.

iii

liii. pens a bushel, & other graynes, where solde at an excessyue. pryce, aboue the olde custome.

Anno. do. m. cccc. xl. an. xlviii. Hērici sexti. Robert Large mercer mayre, Roberte Marshall, Phyllyp Maipalas chyzylles.

The french
kyng fled for feare.

In thys yere the Duke of yorke was made agayne Regent of fraunce, which accompayned wpth the earle of Orforde, and dyuers other noble men sayled into Normady, and he hearinge that the frenche kyng laye at seage at Bouthoye, and wente thether wpth a noble army. But the french kyng hearing of the Englyshemens comynge, brake bp hys seage, and went away by nyght.

The duke
of burye deliuered out of pry
son.

In thys yere was the Duke of Burpauce, deliuered oute of pryson who had bene prisoner in Englād, xxv. yeres, and for hys raun ransome the Duke of Burgone payed iiii. C. M. Crownes.

Anno do. m. cccc. xli. an. xix.
Henrici sexti, Thon Paddispe goldsmyth mayre, John Sutton, wylliam Wettyngdale, Snyppes.

In this. xix. yeare, manye no- Two armie es at once in France.
ble fetes of armes was doone in fraunce, for the Duke of porke lorde Regent sent the lorde Wylloughby wyth a noble Crue of Archers, and men of warre into Pecardy, whiche dyd valyaunt-lye. Also he sent the Lorde Talbot to beseage Bepe, and he hym selfe accompanyed wyth the Duke of Somerset, set forwarde into the Duchy of Anio w, where he dyd many notable feates.

Anno. do. M. cccc. xlii an. xx.
Henrici sexti. Robert Clopton mayre, wylliam Combra, Ry-chard Kyche Myrpyes.

This

This yeaere the fleple of Paul-les churche in London, was set on fyre by lyghtnyng.

A variation between lordes of England.

In this yeaere also began to kyndle in Englande the fyre of malyce, for the Cardinall of Wynchester dyd enuy the gouernaunce of the lorde protector, for whych he varyaunce afterwarde was the destruccyon of manye a noble manne, as after shalbe declared.

Anno. do. m. cccc. xliii. an. xxi.
Henrici sexti. John Atheley promonger maire. Thomas Be-mont Rycharde Gordon shryffes

Anno do. m. cccc. xliiii. an. xxi Henrici vi. Thomas Catworth grocer mayre. Nicolas wifford John Norman shryffes.

A treatys for grace. In this yeaere, al the princes of Chrystendome sente their Ambassadours vnto Troyes in Cha-payne to treate for a peace, betweene

twene Englande and fraunce, and a peace was taken for fyfe yeares.

Anno do. m. cccc. xlv. an. xlvii.
Henryci sexti. Henry frowyke mercier mayre. Steuen foster, Hughe whiche Wyryffes.

In this yeare, the ladye Mar-gret the kynges doughter of Cecil was married to the kyng, and after Crowned at Westmynster, whiche marriage was neyther profytable to the Realme, nor yet honorable to the kyng, as Halle declareth at large.

The kyng
married.

Anno. do. m. cccc. xlv. an. xlviii.
Henryci. sexti. John Olney mercier mayre, John Herot, Godfrey bolayne Wyryffes.

In this yeare was a greate Insurrection in Norwiche against the Pryor of Chyrtres Church, for raising of new fines of theyr Tenautes, the cytezens kept the gates

Insurrection at Norwiche

gates agaynst the Duke of Norfolke, who came thether to appeace the matter, but in conclusion they opened the gates, and submytted the selles. The chief offenders were put to execution and the mayre discharged of his office, and syr John Clystō was made gouernoure, tyl the kynge had restored theyr libertyes agayne.

Anno. do. m. cccc. xlvi. an. xlv. Henrici sexti. John Gidnes draper mayre. wylliam Abraham Thomas Scot shryffes.

This yeare dyed the good Duke of Glouceter, and is buryed at saynte Albones.

Anno do. m. cccc. xlviii. an. xlvii. Henrici sexti. Steuen Browne grocer mayre. William Cantlow wylliam Hartow shryffes.

In this yeare the Englyshmenne losse manye towens in Fraunce fraunce for because of the variaunce betwene the nobilitie of Englande, there was smale prouydyng to sende ayde in too fraunce, so that the souldyers were bnpyled to the greate losse of Englande.

Te begyn nyng of losyng of normandy.

Anno. do. M. cccc. xlix. an. xxvii Henrici sexti. Thomas Chaltho mayre Thomas Cauinges, wylliam Bolyn bryppes.

In thys yere was Roan yel-ded to the frenche kyng, by reason that the Cytezens rebelled agaynst the capitaynes, and so dyd all muste all the towens of Normandy, afor lacke of ayde, the Duke of Somerset, and the Lord Talbot were fayne to render al into þ frenchmēs handes.

In thys yere also the Duke of porke was sent wyth a conuenient army into Irelande, to lade. be the kynges leuetenaunt there

Roan yel-
ded to the frenche
kyng.

A blageth to Ire-

D.ii. and and to suppress the wilde Irish who did then rebell.

Anno domini. M. cccc. l. an. xxviii.
Henrici sexti. Nicolas Maiuolde grocer mayre, Wylliant Dere, Thon Middelton Wyryffes.

Abtage in
to france.

In thys yere was syr Thomas Kyriel sente into Fraunce with a m. and. v. C. men and as he wyth other Capitaynes went to rescue Caen, they met wyth a greate army of Frenchmen, and after longe fyght the Frenchmē obtayned the victory, & ther wer slayn. iiii. M. Englyshmen, and biij. C. taken pyloners. Thys was the fyrst foughtē feld that the Frenchmen gat of the Englysh men in many yeares before therfore I can not blame them though they make much of it to set forth all, and hyde nothyng that may be found to their glorye, but they wyte not how many

The fyrste
feldc loite by the englyshmen.

ny of them were slayne and destroyed.

Anno. dom. m. cccc. li. an. xxiij.
Henrici sexti. waylliam Gregoꝝ skinne mayre. Mathew philip.
Christopher warton shryffes.

Normandy

In this yere che Englyshmen loste. loste all the holdes and townes in Normandy, whiche were in Englyshmens possession, xxx. yea-res before, and were conquered by kynge Henry the fyfte.

An do. m. cccc. lii. an. xxx. Hen-rici sexti, Gysrey felding mayre Rycharde Lee, Rycharde Allay Shryffe.

This yere was a metynge of a great hoost vpon brent heth in Kent, betwene the kyng & the Duke of yorke, and other noble men whiche was appeaced for a time, and the malice dissimuled.

Adissimulling peace

In this yere was the coun-tre of Aquitayne wonne by the H, iii, frencye

Agincourt was won by the Frenchmen.

Frenchmen, which had ben Eng lysh, liii. C. yeares and odde yea-res, and was won by Henry the thyrde.

Anno do. M. cccc. liii. an. xxi.
Henrici sexti. John Norman draper maire. John walden, Thomas Coke Myrreffes.

the batall of Agincourt

In this yeaer, the Lorde Talbot Earle of Shrewesburge, re-couered the cytye of Burdeaux, and after conquered manye townes in Gascoyne, And at the battyle of Chastellon, the sayde noble Earle was slaine, and his sonne also wyth dyuers noble ballpaunt Capitaines of Eng-lande, and manye taken prysoners. Of thys noble Earle of Shrewesburge, serche Halles Cronicle, and you shall perceyue hys valyaunte actes.

This yeaer Machomet the great Turke wanne Constantinoble wyth with exceadyng greate slaughter of Chyristen people, and vnto the aduancemente of the Turkysh empyre.

Constant
noble wo-by great Turke.

Anno. do. m. cccc. liii. an. xxi Henrici sexti. Steuen Foster mayre, Wyllyam Tailour, Thon felde Myrtyres,

This yere, the flame of enuy bruste oute betwene the Duke of yorke, who then claymed the croune, and the duke of Somers-set, who ruled the kyng, and at saincte Albons was foughte a cruel battayle, & vnto the Duke of yorke fel the victory, and on the kynges parte was slayne the Duke of Somerset the Earle of Northumberlande, the Lorde Stafford with. viii. M. men and more, after this bataill, the Duke of yorke, with greate reuerence brought h kyng to Lodon, where the sayd Duke was made protec-

The fynde battail at sainct al-bones.

D. liii. tour

tolure of the realme.

Anno do. m. cccc. lb. an. xxxiii.
Henrici vi. William Warlowe grocer mayre John yonge, Thomos Oldgraue shryffes.

The duke
of yorke deposed of his protector = hyp.

By meanes of the Quene and her counsaile, the Duke of yorke was deposed of hys protector. hypp whiche thinges was cause of a newe grudge and malyce.

Anno do. m. cccc. lvi. an. xxxiiii.
Henrici sexty. Thomas Chanin-ges mayre. Jho Stuard. Raufe Werney shryffes.

A riot in london.

In this yeare was a greate Ryot committed in London, a gaynst the Lombardes and Italyans because a Mercers seruaunte was caste into prison, for strykynge an Italian.

Anno. do. m. cccc. lvii. an. xxxv.
Henrici sexti. Godfrey Bolayne mercier mayre, William Edwarde Thomas Reynere shryffes.

In

In thys yere the Frenchemen Sandwich perceyving the discorde in Eng- destroyed lande, sent. ii. nauies into Eng- by the lande and one of them landed in frenchmen, the downes, and they hauynge knowledge that the people of Sandwitch were fled the towne for deathe) came and spoyled the towne with great cruelty.

In the cite of Muns in Ger- when and many, was the science of Pyry- where the tyng fyrst inuented, by one na- Science of med Johannes Faustus. Pyratyng was found

Anno do. m. cccc. lvi. an. xxxvi Henrici sexti, Thomas Scot draper mayre, Kate Tostelyne, Ry-chard Medlam thyriffes.

In thys yere was made a. A sayned sayned peace betwene the kyng peact. and the Quene, and theyr counsaile on the one partye, and the Duke of yorke wyth hys confe-derates on the other parte, wherthe agrement endured not longe.

An.

The batel on bloze heath.

Anno do. M. cccc. lix. an. xxxvii.
Henrici sexti. Wyllyam hull fyw monger mayre. John Stocker, Thon Plumer Shyriffes.

In thys yeare, was the battaye on bloze heath, in Shrop-shyre: betwene the lorde Audelai on the kynges partye, and the earle of Salisburie, on the Duke of yorkes partye, where the victory fel to the Earle of Salys-burie, and the Lord Audley was slain, and hys army discomfited.

Anno do. M. cccc. lx. an. xxxviii.
Henrici sexti. Rycharde Lee grocer mayre. John Lamberte, Ry-charde flemynge shyriffes.

In thys yeare, the Duke of yorke, assembled a greate army of Northemen, and welchmen, and the earle of warwike came with a great number from Cal-lis, and nere vnto Lodlowe, in the Marches of wales thei pitched ched theyr feld, and toward them came the kynge, accompanied wyth the Dukes of Somerset, The duke and Exeter, wyth a myghtye ar- of yorke mye, and the nyghte before the fledde. battayle, Andrew Crollop fled fro the Duke to the kynge, wher fore in the nyght, the Duke hym selfe fled into Irelande, and the Earle of Salysburie Marche, and warwyke, fled into Deuinthere, and so to Cales

After thys departynge, the Duke of yorke wyth hys confe- The duke derates, were proclaimed tay- of yorke tous and the yonge Duke of So- proclay- merfet was made Captayne of med trat- Calys but when he came there he could not be receyued because the earles was there before, and so he was fayne to take Gynges.
In thys yeare also, the Earles of Marche and warwyke came from

The bat:
tyle of Northamp
ton.

from Calys, and so landed, at Sandewitche, and so came to London, and by the way mette them dyuers noble men, and so came to London, where they were gentely receiued, and after longe consulting, the sayd Ear-les wyth an army of. xxb. M. mē set forwarde to mete the kynge who had prouided an army nere to Northampton, where was foughte a cruel battaile, the victor fell to the Earle of Marche and hys companye, where were slayne on the kinges partye, the Duke of Bockyngham and the Earle of Shrewsbury, wyth. x.
M. taule Englyshmen, and the reste fled: and leste the Kynge alone, and the Duke of Somers-set, the Quene and her son fled in to the Byshopryke of Durham After this feld: the Earle of Marche conueyed the kynge to Lon.

The kyns taken

London, where was a Parliament somoned, at which Parlyament the Duke of yorke was made ayre apparent, and al hys progenye after hym.

The duke
of yorke pclared ayre apparent

In this yeare Quene Margaret, in greate haste gathered a great company of Northen mē, and at wakefeld in a cruel fyght dyscomfyted and slew the Duke of yorke wyth hys son the Earle of Rutlande, and the Earle of Salisbury was taken prisoner who afterwarde was beheaded at Pontfret, and hys head sente to yorke.

The battyle at wakefeld

The Quene with her retinew, here to saynt Albone, dyscomfy-ted the earle of warwyke & the duke of Norfolke, and delyuered Kynge Henrye her husbande, in thys battell was slayne. ciii.c. men, and not aboue, of whome no noble menne is remembred but

The second battaylle at saynt Albone

but fyr John Graue who the daye before was made knyght.

After thys battayle the kynge and the Queene herynge of the commynge of the Earle of Marche, and the Earle of warwike wyth a greate numbze of Mar-chemen) toke their torney Norwarde and the said Earle came to London, where Edward Earle of Marche: by the consent of the nobyltye and comons, was proclaimed kynge, the iiii. daye of March: in the yere of our Lorde M.cccc.lx. by the name of kynge Edward the fourth.

Kynge edwarde pro
claymed
kynge.

Immediatly after kynge Edwarde was plocclaimed kynge, He pursued kynge Henry toward yorke, and mette wyth kynge Henries army, at a place called Towton, with whome he hadde thenne a cruell battayle, but kynge

The bat-
tall at tow
ton.

kyng Edward had the victory.
In the felde were slayne. xxxvi.
M. and vii. C. persons, and all Englyshemenne. Also there was slayne the Earles of Northumberland and Westmerlande, the lorde Clyffort, and divers other and kyng Henry loste all, and was faine to flee the lande, after he had raygned. xxxviii. yeares
and. vi. monethes.

After this cruell battayle kyng henry kyng Henry fled into Scotlāde <sup>ry fled to</sup> and Quene Margaret with the <sup>Scotland.</sup> younge prynce, fled to her father the Duke of Angles.

Edward the. iiii.

Anno dom. M. cccc. lxi.

Anno primo Edwardi

iiii. Yughte whyche

maye. George Tre-lande John Locke,

Shryffes.

This yere the xxix. daye of June
was

The crow was King Edward the.iiii. with naryon of great trumpe crowned at west-kyng Ed- myster.
warde.

Anno domi. m. cccc. lxiij. an. ii.
Edwardi quarti. Thomas Coke maire. Bartilmewe James, william Hampton byrpyes.

A bataile
at Exam.

In thys yere kyng Edward & Quene Margarer hys wyfe, came out of Scotlande wyth a great armye of frenchmen and Scottes, and in Examsyre, the Lorde Mountacute (gouvernour of the North countre) mete hym with a noble armye, were Kyng Henry was dyscomfited & fled, and h Duke of Somerset (who a lytle before forsoke kyng Edwarde) was taken in the chase wyth dyuers other, who afterward were, beheaded.

Anno do. m. cccc. lxiij. an. iii.
Edwardi quarti. Mathew Phylyppe goldesmych mayre, Thomas

mas Dulscham, Robert balled hyppes.

In thys yere kyng Henrye came out of Scotland into eng-lande by what meanes I haue not reade but I thynke not well stablyssed in hys myt, but boldely he entred the Realm, & assone he was entred: he was known etake by one Catlow & broughe toward the kyng who the earle of Warwicke met on the way by the kynges commaundemēt, and brought hym throughe London to the Towre, and there he was layed in sure holde. And Quene Margaret and her sonne departed out of Scotland, and sayled into fraunce, where she remayned with Duke Rayner her father, tyll she tooke her infortu-nate iourneye into Englande againe.

kyng henrye taken prisoner.

Anno, do, m, cccc. lxiij. an. lxiij.

J. i.

Ed.

Edwardi quartt, Hauke Postellyne draper mayre. John Cate, John Stone Shyppes.

kyng Edward married

This yere, the Earle of war-wyke was sent into Fraunce, to treat for a marriage betwene the lady Bona, doughter to lewes, Duke of Sauoye, & syster to the frenche Quene, which mariage was agreed vnto, but in the meane season kyng Edward maried pryuely at Grafton, the Lady Elizabeth, late wyfe of sir Thon Garpe, for whiche marry-age rose great variencie betwene the kyng and the earle of war-wyke, hys chiefe frende, and main-teynor.

Anno do. m. cccc. lxx. an. quinz to Edwardi quartt. Hauke Werney mercer mayre. Henry waner Wylliam Constantyne Shyppes.

the quene
deliuered
of a don-gher

In thys yere, the Quene was deliuered of a fayre Lady, and
was

was named Elizabeth, whiche afterward was wyfe to the noble prynce kynge Henry the. vii. mother to kynge Henry the. viii

Also in thys yere was grauted a lycence, that certayne cosse hold shepe shoulde be transpor-tee into spayne, whiche haue so there multiplyed and increased that it haue turned the commo-dyte of Englande muche to the Spanyshe profyte.

A lycence grauated to carye shepe into spayne.

Anno. do. m. cccc. lxxvi. an. vi. Edwardi. iiii. John yonge grocer knight mayre, Henry Brice, John Browne, John Stocton shryff.

In thys yere the basterde of Burgon cam into Englande, to treate for amarryage, betwene the Earle Chareloyle eyre of Burgon, & kynge Edwards syster whiche mariage was concluded

A charlen-ge betwene barons of Burgon &
the Lord
Scales.

At whiche time the sayd basterd chalenged the Lorde Scales for A. ii. certayne

certayne feates of warre which were done in Smythfeld , but the lord Scales had the byctory.

Anno do. m. cccc. lxxii. an. vii.
Edwardi quarti. Thomas Owl grave mayre. Humfrey Heyford, Thomas Stalbroke Wyppes.

An. do. m. cccc. lxxiii. an. octauo Edwardi quarti. Wyllyam Taylour grocer mayre, Symon Smith, Wyllyam Hervot Wyppes.

The erle of warwyke to rebell agaynst of war- kyng Edward, and procured to make relei hys parte the Duke of Clarence Feb. brother to the kyng, the Archebyschop of yorke, & the Marques Moutacute hys brethren which Earle with the duke of Clarence went to Calys where the sayde Duke married the Earles doughter of warwyke.

banbury
felde.

In thys yeare also , the commons of yorkshyre made insurrec-reccion, at the settinge on of the Earle of warwyke and hys adherentes and made them a captayne, called Robyn of Ryddes-dale and nere unto Banbury the Lorde Harbert, Earle of Pen-broke, and hys brother syre Ry-charde Harbert wyth and armye of. vii. m. welchmē met the Nor-thernmen, betwext whome was a cruell battell, where the Nor-thernmen optayned the victorie, and the Earle of Penbroke and hys brother Richarde taken and beheaded, a. v. m. welchmē slayne

After thys victorie, the Nor-thernmen wente to warwyke, where the Earle and the Duke of Clarence had gathered a greate armye, and kyng Edward wyth hys puissaunce came agaynste them, but sodenly in the nyghte, the earle set on the kinges camp. so that kyng Edward was there

A. iii. taken

Kyng Ed: taken prysoner, and soo sente to Middelha castel in workehyre, to be kepte with the Archbysshop of worke, the Carles brother

Kyng Ed: Shortli after, kyng Edward hauing frendship of hys keepers was suffered certayne dayes in the weke to ryde a huntynge, and by the meanes of syr Wyllyam Stanley, syr Thomas of Bo rough, and diuers other hys fren des with a greate bonde of men was rescued frome hys keepers and so deliuered out of prysion.

Kyng Edward, after he was come to london, gathered toge ther his armie, and so met wyth the lord welles, with a greate ar mye, the victorie fell on the kyn ges parte, where were slayne. x.
m. men at the least, where were taken & beheaded the lord welles, syr Robert welles hys sonne syr Robert Demoke wyth dy uers

The Lord
welles be headed.

ners other, thys battayle was called Loscote feld, because the Loscote Lyncolne shyre men dyd whoyle feld.
away theyr cotes, & ran a waye.

Thys yere, the Earle of war- The earle wyke wyth the duke of Claren- of warwic ce, perceuyng the partyr wea- he fledde kened, fled into Fraunce for so- into frau coure, where they tarped not past ce.
bi. monetes.

The Duke of Clarence, the Earles of warwyke, Penbroke The earle and Orfok the landed at Dert- of warwic mouth, to whome by meanes of he landed proclamacyons made in Kyng Henryes name, the comons gathered to them in great number so that kyng Edward fearng hys partyr, fled into Flaunders, to the Duke of Burgoyne.

After Kyng Edwardes fly- kyng Edw yng, diuers of hys frendes toke ward fled sainctuarie, and in especialle into flau Quene Elizabeth, who was ders.

Kyng Edward
made the bolne in sanctuary kyngdome restored to his kyn gly estate.

barnet
felde.

pozely deliuered in the sanctu-arye at westmynster, of a sonne named Edwarde

Then was Henry the. vi. set at large, and agayne proclay-med kyng, by meanes of the erle of warwyke, and other, and king Edwarde proclaymed usurper of the crowne, but that continued not longe.

Anno domi. m. cccc. lxx. an. ix.
Edwardi quarti. Rycharde Lee grocer mayre, Robert Draper, Rycharde Gardener wyzylles,

Anno domi. m. cccc. lxxi. anno. x.
Edwardi quarti, Ihon Stocto, mercier knyghte mayre, Iohn Crosby, Iohn warde wyzylles.

In thys yere also, Kyng Edward haupng kyng Henry in hys company, met with the Earle of warwyke on Easter daye at barnet. x. myles from Lodon, where betwene the was fought a cruel bat-

batel the byctory fell on Kyng Edwardes parte, where were slayne Rycharde neuell, Earle of warwyke, and the Marques mountacute hys brother, with x. M. men more

Shortely after this battaille Quene Margaret wyth her son landed at waymouth in Dorset shyre, and when she heard of the death of the Earle of warwyke she and her sonne tooke sanctua ry at Bewley in Hamshyre, and vnto her resorted the Duke of Somerfet, and the Earle of De uenshyre wyth other, who gathe red a greete armye, and kyng Ed ward with a great army, mette wyth them nere vnto Tewkes bury where was faught a cruell battel, but kyng Edward had the victory, where Quene mar garet was taken prysoner, and prynce Edward her sonne also, who

A batel at tewkesbur ye.

Edw
fals

who in the kynges presente was shamefully murdered, thys bachel was fought the. iiii. day of may on a saterdaye, and on the Monday after was beheded at Temkesbury, Edmond Duke of Somerfet, the Pryor of S. Johns Ierusalem, wyth dyuers other and the Quene sent prisoners to London, who afterwarde was remeded by her father, and after sent into Fraunce.

A new co marpon.

After thys, the basterd fauco brydge, who was made fese Admiral by the Earle of warwyke began a newe commocyon wyth Kentyshmen, and Essexmen, who shortlye was appzehended, and put to death.

death
of kyng
henry the
vi.

In thys yeare also, bpon the Ascencion euen next folowynge, the dead corps of Kyng Henry the. vi. was broughte from the Tower of London too Paules,
where where he laye all nyghte. But howe thys Prynce came to hys death there be diuers sayinges but commonlye it is sayde that Rycharde Duke of Glocester, kynges Edwardes brother slewe him with a dagger.

Anno. dom. m. cccc. lxxi. anno. xi.
Edwardi quarty, wylliam Edward grocer mayre. Thon Alein John Shelley Shryffes

Anno do. m. cccc. lxxii. an. xii.
Edwardi iiii. wyllia Hampton syn mōger mayre John browne, Thomas Bledlow Shryffes

Anno. do. m. cccc. lxxiii. an. xiii.
Edwarde quarty. John Tate mercier mayre. wylliam Stocker, Robert bylledon Shryffes.

Anno do. m. cccc. lxxiiii. an. xiiii.
Edwardi quarty, Robert Drope draper mayre, Edmonde Maas, Thomas Hyll Shryffes.

This

A voyage
to France

This yere, kynge Edward with a noble armye wente into fraunce, but after ward conside ringe the bniustnes of the duke of Burgoyne there was a peace concluded so that the frenche kynge shoulde paye to kynge Ed warde. lxxv. m. Crownes. a yere lye, l. m. Crownes, durynge kynge Edwardes lyfe.

Anno dom. m. cccc. lxxv. an. xv.
Edwardy quart, Robert Basset salter mayre. Hughe Wyce Robert Colwith, shryffes.

This yere were diuers Ba kers of London set vpon the pil lorie, for makynge of lyghte weight of breade.

Anno. m. cccc. lxxvi. an. xvi.
Edwardi. iiii. Raufe Jostelyn draper mayre. Rycharde Raufon wylliam Horne shryffes

This yere, from Crypplegate to bishopes gate London walle
was

was newly repayred.

Anno do. M. cccc. lxxviii. anno. xviii Edwardi. iiii. Willelmus Hey-ford goldsmith mayre. Henricus Collet, John Stocker chiriffes.

This yeare, George Duke of Clarence, yonger brother to King Edward, beinge prisoner in the Towre of London, was there drowned in a baryl of Malmesey.

Anno. do. m. cccc. lxxviii. an. xviii. Edwardi quarti, Richard Gardiner mercer mayre. Robert Parding, Robert Bifeld chiriffes.

In this yere was a great mor-talitie in London, and throughe out all England.

Anno do. m. cccc. lxxix. an. xix.
Edwardi quarti, Willelmus James draper mayre Thomas Flam, John warde chiriffes.

Anno domini. m. cccc. lxxx. an. xx Edwardi. iiii. Thon Browne mayre, Willelmus Bacon, Willelmus
an

Wylliam Daniel Myppes.
Anno do. m. cccc. lxxi. an. cxi.
Edwardi quarti. Willia Heriot Draper knyght mayre. Robert Cate, wylliam wykynge, Ry-charde Chawrie Myppes.

The kyng
made a leafe too the maister
of london.

This yere, in the moneth of July the kyng sent for the mayre wyth certayne of hys brethren, and comeners of the city of London, into the foze of waltham, and there caused the game to be brought before them, so that they saw course after course and many dere: bothe red and fa-lowe slayne. And after that the kyng commanded his officers to brynge the Mayre and hys company into a pleasant lauge made all of grene bowes, and there set them to dyuer, and ser-ued them wyth manye denty dyshes, & dyuert wynes good and plenty, and ouer that caused the lordes Chamberlayne wyth other lordes, to chere the Mayre and hys companye, sundrye tymes while they were at dyner, and at their departyng gaue vnto them benyson greate plentye.

This yere also, the kynge sent vnto the mayresse of Lodon, and her sisters the Aldermens wyues two hartes. bi. Bucke, and a Conne of wyne, to make theym merye wyt all.

Anno do. M. cccc. lxxii. an. xxi Edwardi. iiii. Edmōd Esaa goldmithe mayre. John Mathew, william whyte thyzples.

In the begynnyng of the. xxi. yere, the. ix. day of Aprail, dyed the noble kynge Edwardi the.
iii. at westminster, and is buried at win:ore, leuyng after hym two sones that is to say Prynce edwarde hys Eldest sonne, and

Ryche

Richard Duke of Yorke, & thre doughters, Elizabeth that after was Queene, Cicily and Katheryne.

Edward the fyft.

Edward the .v. began hys raygne ouer the realme of Englande the .xi. day of Apryll, in the begynnyng of the yere of our Lorde. M. cccc. lxxiii. the same Edward, beyng of the age of .xi. yeaeres, or there about, thys Edward was neuer crouned, but shamelull murthe-red, by the commaundemente of Rychard the thirde, that after was kyng of England.

Rychard the thyrde.

Rychard the thyrde began hys dominion ouer thys Realme of England the .xxi. daye of June, in the yere
of

of our Lord. m. cccc. lxxiii. and the. vi. day of July, then next folowynge, was crowned at westminster,

Anno do. m. cccc. lxxiii. anno ii. Richardi. iii. Wyllyam byl-lesdon haberdasher mayre. Thomas Hollande, Wyllyam Martyn Wyppes.

In thys yeare was the Duke of Buckyngham beheaded at Salisbury.

The duke of buk:ng ham behea-
ded.

Anno do. m. cccc. lxxiiii. anno iii. Rycharde. iii. Thomas Dilmayre. Thomas Bretayne, Richard Chesser, Raufe Aurey Wyppes.

This yeare, the. xxii. daye of August in the yeare of our Lord m. cccc. lxxv. was the battell of Bosworth nere to Lecester, in which kyng Richarde the thyrde in the thyrde yeare of hys reygne was slayne by kyng Henrype the Bosworth

felde.

iii.

vi.

vi. the whiche in the same daye began his reigne ouer the Realme, and the xix. daye of October Kynge the next folowynge, was crowned at the. vii. westminster, crowned.

Two may-res of London inane yeare. and both dyed of the sweat

In the. xiii. daye of September, in the yeare of oure Lorde, laste before mencioned, dyed of the sweate the foresayde Thomas Hille-mayre, in whose place the xiiii. day of the moneth, a yeare of oure Lorde, last before mency-oned, Wyllyam Stocker knyghte, was chose mayre, whiche Stocker died the. xviii. day of the said moneth, also of the sweate and the. xix. daye of the saide moneth of Septēber, was Thon warde chosen mayre, and so continued vntyll the feaste of Symon and Iude, next folowynge,

Henry the. vi.

Anno

Anno do. m. cccc. lxxxv. anno primo Henrici.
 vii. Hugh Wyce golde Smyth knyght mayre.
 John Cate, John

Swan Wyppes.

Anno do. M. cccc. lxxxvi. an. secundo Henrici. vii. Henry Col let mercer mayre. John Percei uall, Hugh Clopton Wyppes.

Thys yere the kyng married kyng Edwardes eldest dough-ter, named Elyzabeth, & in September next after, was Prynce Arthur borne at winchester.

The kyng
 married.

Since as this booke is.

Anno do. m. cccc. lxxxvii. anno tertio. Henrici septimi, Wyllyam Horne mayre, Wyllyam Keming-ton, John Fenkell Wyppes.

In thys yere, on s. katherins day the quene was crowned at westm.

the quene
 crowned.

Anno do. M. cccc. lxxxviii. anno iiii. Henrici septimi, Roberte Cate mercer Mayre. Wyllyam

R. ii.

Isaac

A comyn ciō in nor thumber-
lande.

Isaac, Raufe Tylney Wyryffes.

This yere the comyns of the North slew the Erle of Northumberlande, in the same yere was the felde of Dykesme we in Flaunders foughtē, by the lorde Dawbenet, where the Lorde Mozlaye was slayne.

Anno do. M. cccc. lxxxix. an. b.
Henrici. vii. Wyllyam whyte mayre, Wyllyam Capell, Thon Broke Wyryffe.

Anno dom. m. cccc. lxxx. an. vi Henrycy septimi. John Matthew mercer mayre, Henri Coke Robert reuyl, Hugh pemertō shi.

The byrth
of kynge
henry the
vi.

This yere was the lorde Henri the kynges secōde sonne, borne in Grenewitche in June.

Anno do. m. cccc. lxxxi. an. vii.
Henrici septimi. Hughe Claptō mercier mayre, Thomas woode, Wyllyam Browne Wyryffes.

Anno do. m. cccc. lxxxii. an. viii.

Hen

Henrici septimi wylliam Mar-tynne skynner mayre. wylliam Purchase, wylliam welbecke shyppes.

This yere in the moneth of <sup>a fray in</sup> Octobere was a fraye made bp <sup>london,</sup> pon the Carthynges, by the commons of the cytie of Lodon, and specyallye by the mercers ser-uantes.

Anno do. m. cccc. lxxxiii. anno ix. Henrici septimi. Raufe Au-stray fishmonger maire, Robert fabian, wylliam wynger shyppes.

This yere was wheate at sixe pens the bushel, and bar salt at three pence. ob. a bushel in the cytye of London.

This yere was fyr wylliam Stanley beheaded.

Anno do. m. cccc. lxxxiii. an. x.
Henrici septimi. Richard chawre. Salter mayre, Nicolas Alwyne, John warner shyppes.

R. iii.

This

In this yeare was good chep bittayle &
England.

This yeare was white bea-rynge solde for thre myllynge and.iiii.pence a barell at london, and not aboue.

Anno. do. m. cccc. lxxxv. an.
xi. Henrici septimi. Henry Colet mercier knight mayre, Thomas Knesworth, Henry Somers Wy.
Anno do. m. cccc. lxxxvi. an. xii. henrici septimi. John Tate mercer mayre, John Haa, Wycharde Haddon Shryffes.

blackheth fylde

This yeare the xviii. daye of June was Blackheth felde.

Anno do. m. cccc. lxxxvii. anno xiii. Henrici vii. wyllyam Purchase mercier maire. Bartylmeu Rede, Thomas wyndon Shryffes.

Anno do. m. cccc. lxxxviii. an. xiiii. Henrici vii. sir John percival Marchaunte Tayler Mayre, Thomas Brabury, Steuen Jenyns Shryffes.

Anno do. m. cccc. lxxxix. an. xv.
Hen

Henrici. vii. Nicolas Alwyne mayre. James Wilford, Richard Bloude Shyryffes.

This yere, was the Earle of The earle Warwike beheaded. of warwic he behead

This yere the kynge and the Queene sayled to Calys, and at saincte Peters, they met wyth the duke of Burgoyne.

Anno. domi. m. cccc. an. xvi.
Henrici. vii. Wyllyam Kemyngham Mayre. John Hawes, wyllyam Strete Shyryffes

This yere the. iiii. dai of October landed at Plumouth. Katherine Lady kas daughter to the kynge of Spayne. theria la. oro.

Anno domi. m. cccc. i. an. xvii.
Henrici. vii. John Shaa golde-myth mayre. Laurence Aylmer, henry hede Shyryffes.

This yere vpon saint Erkenwaldes day, was prince Arthur marryed to the forsayed lady Katherine which prince died in the weke folo-weng. R. iiii. This

Anno domini. m. ccccc. ii. anno xviii. Henrici. vi. Bartilmewe Kede golde smyth mayre, Henry Kebbel Nicolas Minis thyriffes.

the death
of the
quene.

This yere the. ii. day of February, dyed Quene Elyzabethe in the towre of London, beyng in childebed, and the. viii. day of August was the kynge of Scottes married to Margaret the eldest doughter.

Anno. do. m. ccccc. iii. an. xix.
Henrici septimi. syr wylliam Ca-pell draper mayre, Christopher Hawes, Robert wattis, Thomas graunge thyriffes.

Anno domini. m. ccccc. iiij. anno. xx. Henrici septimi. Thon wynger grocer mayre. Roger Archilley, wylliam Browne thiriffes.

Anno do. m. ccccc. v. an. xxi. herici. vii. Thomas Kneysworth thyriff fyth monger mayre, Rycharde Shore Roger groue Shyryffes.

In thys yere was the wether the duke cothe of Paules blowne downe of burgon and the duke of Burgoyne was driven in dryuen to lande in the weeste to englad contrey. by tēpest.

Anno do. M. cccc. vi. an. xxi.
Henrici septimi. Syr Rycharde Haddon mercer mayre, wyllyam copinger Thomas Ihonson, wil lyam fytze Shyryffes.

Anno domi. m. cccc. vii. anno xxii. Henrici septimi wyllyam Browne mercer. Laurence Ty mer mayres, wyllyam Butler, John Kyzby Shyryffes.

Thys yere was a great part a gret fy of the Citie of Norwytch brent. et at nor Anno do. m. cccc. viii. an. xxiii. wythe Henrici septimi. Steuen Tenings marchaunt tayler mayre, Tho mas Ermew, Rycharde Smyth, Shyryffes.

In

In thys yere the .xxi. daye of Aprill, dyed kynge Henrye the vii. at Rychemonde, the. xliiii. yere of hys reigne, & is buryed at westminster.

Henry the eyght.

The noble kynge Henry the. viii. began hys regne the. xxi. daye of Aprill, in the yere of our Lord. M. cccc.

ir. and was crowned at westminster, in the fest of the natiuite of saint Ihd baptist next folowing Anno do. m. cccc. ix. anno. ppymo Henrici octavi. Thomas Bradbury mercer mayre, george Monox, John Duket shryffes,

In thys yere was Empton & Dudley beheaded

Thys yere was syz wyllyam fytz wyllyam dysfraunched, because he would not bee shry-ffe.

Anno

Empton & Dudley be-
headed.

Anno. do. ccccc. x. an. an. ii hen-rici. viii. Henry Kebell maire, John Mylborne. John Kest Wy.

This yere, Henrre the kynges sonne was borne at Ryche-mond, on Newyeres dape: & Jules kept at westminster, & on s.
Mathewes day the chyld dyed.

The birth of kynges ynges son.

Anno do. M. ccccc. xi. an. ter-cio Henrici octavi. Roger Achylley draper Mayre, Nicholas Sheltō, Thomas Myrfin Wy.

This yere was the lorde darsey sent into spaine, to ayde the kyng of Spayne agaynst the Moors, but peace was made before hys aruynng, and so he returned home agayne.

Ablage in to spayne

This same season was syz Edward popynges sente into Bel-derlād to ayde p prince of chassel, The same tyme, the lorde Haw-arde, toke Andrew bertō & a. c. lx.
Scottes, and two fayre shippes.

Ablage in togelder
lande.

Can

Anno do. m. cccc. xii. anno. iiii Henrici octavi, wylliam. Copyn ger, Richarde Haddon knyghte mayres. Roberte Holderne, Robert fenrothern byrpfes.

Edwarde
de lapole
beheaded

This yere was Edward De lapole beheaded.

A voyage
to spayne

This yere, the Lorde Marques dorset was sent into spayne with. x. Men. and dyd muche hurte in Guien, and returned in wynter by season of the flyx, and Whatel on

the sea

on saynct Laurence day, the regent and the Caricke were brēt, which were two greate byppes.

The lord
Admyrall
slayne.

This yere fyr Edward How-arde, lorde Admyrall of England was slayne on sayncte Markes day in Bryttayne, by much hardynesse. The same yere in June

Exmoyne
Turney
gone.

the kyng besieged Exmoyne, and disconfited the power of fraunce at Boonwe, and tooke the cities Exmoyne and turney, and returned

ned without any battel offered, duryng which tyme the kynge of Scottes entred Englande wyth an. C. M. menne, and was slayne him selfe, and. xii. Carles, by the Carle of Surrey, the kynges liefetenant, wherfore the kynge created hym Duke of Norfolke and hys eldest sonne Carle of Surrey.

The kynge
of Scottes
slayne.

Anno. do. m. cccc. xiii. an. b.
Henrici octavi, william browne mercet mayre. John Dawes, John Bruge Wypples.

This yere, the sayde Dawes died wyth in the yere, and in hys place was chosen Roger Basforde.

Anno do. m. cccc. xiiii. anno vi. Henrici octavi. George Wo-nor draper mayre, James parforde, John Mundy Wypples.

This yere was a peace concluded betwene Englande and fraunce

78 24

A peate
cluded be tween eng
lande and
france.

france & on saynt denys day, the frenche kynge married the ladye Mary, the kynges syster, & & on Newes daye after he dyed and therfore the kynge sente for her agayn, by the Duke of Suffolke and other.

In thys yeare dyed Rycharde Bunne in the Lollers Towre.

Anno domini m. cccc. xlv. an. vi.
Henrici octavi, Ryz wylliam Butler grocer Mayre. Henrye woyle, Richard Gray wyzylles.

The ladye Gray dyed wyth in the yeare, and for hym was chosen wylliam Bayle.

the byth
of quene
Marye
The duke of suffolke
married
the french
quene.

Thys yeare in february, was borne, at grenewyche ladye marye the kynges daughter.

In Apryl, the frenche Quene came into Englande, and was married to the Lorde Charles Duke of suffolke.

In

In this yere, Margaret the quene Quene of Scottes, sister to the kinge, fled into Englande, and laye at Harbottell, and she was delivered of a daughter, called Margaret: and came to london in May, and taried there a hole yere before she returned,

Anno dom. m. cccc. xvi. anno. biii. Henrici viii. Thon Kest grocer Mayre, Thomas lemer Rycharde Churston Wyppes.

This yere was such a frost that al men with cartes myghte a great passe betwene westmynder, and froke Lambeth,

This yere on Maye even was an insurrection of yonge persones agaynst Alyens, of the whiche dyuers were put to execution, and the residue came to westminster with halters about their necke, and wer pardoned
AND

And the .xxiii. daye of May the quene of Scottes returned into Scotlande agayne.

Anno do. m. cccc. xlii. an. i.
Henrici. viii. Syr Thomas Crmewe goldsmith mayre, Thomas baudry, Rycharde Symon Wyppes.

In this yeare was the terme adourned to Oxford, and agayn to London.

Turney.

gens ouer to the stē hemmen;

In Octobre, the Admyrall of Fraunce came into Englande, & Turney was delyuered to the frenche kyng agayne.

Anno do. m. cccc. xliii. an. i.
Henrici octauī, Thomas Wysyn skynner mayre, Thon Allen, James spencer, Wyppes.

Charles
De. b. elected Epescopur,

Abiage in wyrland

In this yeare at Frankford.
Charles the. v. was elected Empeour.

This yeare, the earle of Surrey was sent into Ireland.

Anno

Anno. do. m. ccccc. xix. an. xi. hen-rici octavi, Syr James parforde mercier mayre, John wilkinson Nicolas Partryche Shyryffes.

This yere the kyng, and the French kyng met at the campe between Arde and Gynnes, wher were great triumphes.

After that, the kyng and the Emperour mette, and the kyng went to Grauelon wyth hym, & he came to Calis wyth the king and had greute cheare, and the kyng returned.

A triumphe
at Calys.

Anno do. m. ccccc. xx. an. xii. Hen-rici octavi. Syr John Brugge draper mayre. John Skeuyng-ton, John Kembe Shyryffes.

This yere, the Duke of Buckingham was beheaded the. xxi. day of Maye.

The duke
of buckyng ham behea-
red.

In June, the Cardinal went to Calys, to intreate a peace be-twene the Emperoure and the

The cardinal went to calys,

L. i.

french.

French kinge and taried ther tyl Decembre, without any thyng concluded.

Anno do. m. cccc. xxi. an. viii.

Henrici. viii. Syr John Wylborn draper maye. John Wytayne, Thomas pargetoure Wy-

Thys yeare, the fryday before Penthecoste, that is to saye the

vi. daye of June, Charles the v.

Emperoure, was honorably re-ceyued into the citie of London, of the Maye, aldermen, and the Comunalte, our souerayne lorde accompayninge hym. And from London he wence to Wyn-loue and late in the stall of the Garther, & from thence to southe

Hampton, and sayled ouer the sea into Spayne, durynge whiche tyme the Cerle of Surrey, lorde

Admiral brent Morles in Wytayne, and after landed at Calis and entred Pycardye, and brent rownes

Th' emper four recei ued into london.

A voyage
into italy 82, townes and Castels, and bespeged Helsing, but because of winter, he raised his siege & returned Thys yeare, the duke of Albany was entryng in to Englande with a greate armie, but when he hard that the Earle of Shrowe sbury was commynge to fyght with hym, he toke a truce for. vi. monethes.

Anno do. m. cccc. xxi. an. xiii Henric. viii. S. y. Thon monday goldsmith mair. Thon Rudstou John Champnies Wyrttes.

This yeare, Christerne kynge of Denmarke came into Englād in June.

Thys. yeare, the earle of Sur-er brente Jedworth, and many other townes in Scotlande.

In thys yeare the Turke besieged the Rhodes, and vpon Christmas day he toke it.

Anno do. M. cccc. xxiii. anno.

L. ii.

rd

The Scots
tes enuaded Eng-
lande.

The kynge
of demarke came into Eng-lande for secoure.
A beyage into sco-
lande.
the Rhodes won by the Turkes.

A biage in
toltrauer.

rb. Henrici. viii. Syz Thomas Baldi mercer maire, Michel Englysh. Nicolas Tenyns chirp.
Thys yeare the duke of Suffolke was sente into fraunce, with .x. m. menne, and passed the water of Somme without battaye, he toke & destroyed manye tounes, and in December he returned.

The scot
tes entred Englad & Mortely after ranne away.

The same yeare, the duke of Albany besyged the castell of Marke, & hearyng of the earle of Surreis comynge wyth a great army, he cowardly fled.

An. do. M. cccc. xliiii. an. rbi.
Henrici octavi. Syz Wyllyam Bayly draper mayre, Raufe dodmer, wyllyam Roch Gyryffe.

Thys yere came from the Em-perhur the Lord Champere, and other lordes.

diuers ambassadors came into England.

Thys yere came out of Scot-lande the Bysshop of Dunkell,
and

and other as Ambassadors.

This yere on Saynt Ma- The French thewes daye was the French kyng take kyng taken by the Emperoure, prysoner.

This yere was a mutynge A comdoy in Norfolke and Suffolke, for on in nor-payement of money. folke and Suffolke.

A peace concluded betwene England and Fraunce.

The French kyng was de- The French lyuered in Marche, kyng deli-uered out
of pryson

This yere was the coyne enhanced.

Anno dom, m. cccc. xxb. anno rbii, Henrici octavi. Syr Ihon Aleyne mercer mayre.
Ihon Cownton, Christopher Ascue Myrystes,

Anno do, m. cccc. xxbi. an. rbii Henrici octavi, Syr Thomas Semer mercer mayre, Steuen Pecoke. Nycolas Lambert Myr.
This yere y corne began to fayle

This yere the Cardinal went L.iii, into

The cardinall wente
to fraunce
in to fraunce, with a greate company, where he concluded a peace betwene the kyng and the frenche kyng, whiche both defied the emperour, and sent an ar-mye into Italye, and in September he returned.

A legebtheue eng
lande and
fraunce.

In Octobze the great maister of fraunce came to Lodon wyth greate triumphe, for conclusion of the same leage.

An do. m. cccc. xxviii. an. xii.
Henrici octavi, Sir James specer byntener mayre, Thon Hardy, wyllyam Holles shyryffes,

A death of corne.

This yeare corne was verie deare, and had bene dearer, if the marchauntes of the Stylliarde had not bene, and duche shyppes restrayned and an abstinence of warre betwene Englande and flaunders,

alegat es
from Rome

On saincte Denies day alegate came from Rome,

Anno

Anno. dom. m. ccccc. xxviii. an.
rr. Henrici octavi. Syr John Kudestone draper mayre. Raufe waren, John Longe shryffes.

Thys yeare in June, the legates sat at the blake freers, for the kynges marriage.

Thys yeare in Octobre, the Cardynall was deposed of the Chauncellershyp.

Thys yeare was a peace concluded betwene the Emperour & the kyng.

Anno do. m. ccccc. xxix. an. xx.
Henrycy. viii. Sir Raufe Dodmer mercer mayre. Wyghel domer, Walter Champion shryffe.

This yeare the Emperoure was crowned a Bonony.

Anno do. m. ccccc. xxx. an. xxi.
Henrici viii. Sir Thomas Parge-tur salter mayre, wylliam dauncy, John Cloppug shryffes.

Thys yere was the frenche kinges

ges chyl dren delyuere d.

One boy led in Smythfelde for popsonynge.

This yeare died the Cardynal on saynct Andrews euen,

Anno d. m. ccccc. xxxi. an. xxiij.
Henrici octauj. Mycolas Lambert grocer mayre. Rycharde Greham, Edward Altam thyriffes.

The pales at westmi-ster byl-
ded.

Thys yeare, the kynge began to buylde hys place at the west-myster.

In thys yeare was Griffeth Kylse beheaded.

Thys yeare in Octobre, the kynge went ouer the sea, and met wth the frenche kynge.

Anno d. m. ccccc. xxxii. an. xxiiij.
Henrici octauj. Syr Steuen peroke haberdasher mayre, Richarde Reynolde, Rycharde Pyn-chon, John Martyne thyriffes.

This

This yere, the kyng was depoz-ed from his wife quene Katherine.

The kyng
denoiced

And afterward the kyng maryed lady Anne Bolayne, which was crowned on whytsonday.

The kyng
maryed.

On Midlomerday dyed Marye the frenche Quene, syster to the kyng, and wyfe vnto the duke of Suffolde.

Thys yere was borne the lady Elyzabeth at Grenewitch, on the euen of the Natiuite of oure Ladye.

lady elysa bet borne

An. do. M. cccc. xxxiii. an. xxb.
Henrici octavi, Syr Christopher Blcue drapper mayre, Wylyam forman, Thomas Kitson myppes.

This yere was a Nunne called the holy maide of Kente, two

The holie two monkes and two frees, & mayde of Kent & her companipons put deathe.

two monkes and two frees, & a priest haunged and headed for treason, blasphemy, & ypocresye.
Thys yeare was a peace concluded with Scotlande.

Thys yeare was the Byshop the bishop of Rome wyth al hes power ab-of Rome a holysed.

of Rome wyth al hes power ab-holysed quite out of the realme.

Anno do. m. cccc. xxiii. anno. xxvi. Henrici octavi. Syr John Champnyes skynner mayre. Nicolas Leueson, wyllyam Denham shryffes.

The earle
of kyldare
rebelled,

This yeare, the Earle of Kyldare dyed in the towre, and hys sonne rebelled, and slew the By-shop of Beuelyng, wherfore the kyng sent syr wyllyam Sheupngton thither.

This yeare was graunted the kyng the fyrst frutes, and the tente of al spiritual possessions,

In June was the Byshoppe of Rochester, and syr Thomas more

More beheaded for denying the kinge to be supreme heade of the Church of England.

And in this yeare were three monkes of the Charterhouse executed for the same offence.

Anno domini. cccc. xxxv. a. xrbii Henrici octavi. Syre Thon Allyn mercer, the second tyme mayre, Humfrey Hammouth Thon Cotes Wyryles.

This yeare was Quene Anne the lord Rocheford, Mores we ston, Breton, and Markes beheaded. And the kinge married Lady Jane Seiner.

This yeare in October, begā a folyshe commocion in Lyn-colneshyre, and in workehyre, by meanes of the Lorde Dercy, the Lorde Husye, Syre Roberte Constable, and Roberte Aske, whyche by the Kynges wyse, dome and hys prudente coun-sayle

p<sup>r</sup> bishoppe of rochester & sir tomas more
be headed
The mon-kes of charter house, put to death

Quene anne beheaded,

Rebmoyson in linc-colneshyre

saile, were appeaced wythoute bloudshedynge,

Anno do m. cccc, xxxvi. an. xxviii Henrici viii, Syr Raufe warren mercier mayre, Rycharde Paget wylliam Boyer thyriffes:

This yere, the kynge and Quene rode thowre London, wyth a good company.

In february was Thomas Fetzgarte, and syue of hys vn-cles hanged, drawen & quartered

This yere the Lorde Bersey, syr fraunces Bigot, syr Roberte Constable, and other begā a new conspiracy, whiche were attain-ted and put to death in June,

In the tyme of this mayre, & in the yere of our Lorde, m. v. c. and, xxxvii. on saynct Edwardes euen the noble Prynce Edward was borne at Hampton courte, And the vertuous ladye Quene Jane his mother dyed in childe bed

Quene com motion in yorkshire

The birth
of kynge.
Edwarde
the 6th

bed, and was buryed at Wynd-sour.

Anno do. m. ccccc. xxxvii. an. xxiij Henrici octavi. Richardz Greham mayre, Thon Greshā, Thomas Lewyn Shyffes.

This yeare began the collection for the poore in Londō, and a greate number were cured of many greuous diseases, thoro we the charitis therof.

In may was frier forest hanged, and brente in Smytfelde for treason.

Frier forest suffered.

Anno .M. ccccc. xxxviii. anno xxx. Henrici octavi. Syr William Forman mayre, Wyllyam Wylkynson, Nicolas Gylson Shyffes

This yeare in December, was the Marques of Creter, the lord Mountacute, and Syr Edward Neuel beheaded.

The mar-
ques of Creter be-
headed.

In may the Cytezens of London

A noble muster in London.

don mustered al in byghthe har-nes and cotes of white spike, wyth white cloth, and chaynes of golde, in thre greate battels to the great woder of strangers

Anno do. m. cccc. xxxi. an. xxi Henrici octavi. Syr wylliam Bolleys mayre. Thon Fayre, Thomas Huntlow Gyppes.

The ladye
of cleue

Thys yere in Decembre, came into Englande the lady Anne, sister to the Duke of Cleue, who was marryed to the kynge, in the feast of the Epiphanie of our Lord next folowynge. But this marryage dyd not longe coutenew, for in July folowynge, the kynge put her away.

abbotes
put too.
deth for treason

This yere in Nouember, the Abbot of Redyng, Glasseburge and Colchester, were actaynted of hyghe treason, and lyke tray-tours put to deathe.

The. xxviii. day of July, Tho mas

mas Crumwel, late before created Earle of Essex, and water Thomas lorde Hungerford, wer beheaded crumwell at the tower hyll for treason. beheaded.

And the. xxx. day wer Barnes, Garet, and Pierom brent for heresy. Also the same daye were Abell Powell, and Fetherstone, drawen hanged and quartered, in Smithfelde for treason.

In thys somer was a greate heat and drought, so that in many places the people wold haue geuen one bushell for the gren-dyng another.

This yeare was the byshop of Chychester, doctoꝝ sampson, & doctoꝝ wylson, deliuered out of the Towre vpon the kyniges par-donne.

Anno. do. m. cccc. xl. an. xxxii.
Henrici viii. Syꝝ william Roche mayre. william Laxton. Mar-tyu bowes Shyꝝffes.

The

The. viii. daye of Auguste, the kyng married the Lady Katheryne Hawarde, nece to the duke of Norfolke, whiche dignite she enjoyed not longe.

This yere the collection for poore people ceased.

In December were Egerton and Harma put to execution for counterfetyng of the Kynges great seale.

This yere, the kynges grace began great buyldyng at Calys and Guynes.

A new cō-mociō in yorke shyre.

Due execution.

In Apryll, certayne prestes & laye men began a new cōmociō in yorke shyre, which were shortly taken and put to deathe in dy-uers places, one Leghte, and. ii. other were put to deathe at london, the. xxvii. day of maye, and for that offence was Syr John Neuel knight drawen, hanged and quartered, at yorke, on Corpus

plus Chretien, and. xxc. haged for robbery.

In thys yeare, the. vi. dave of May there was a Proclamacyon, that the byble shoulde be had in euery parysh Churche, wyth in thys realme, redye for all sor-tes of people, to reade, and heare goddes worde, at conueniente tymes.

In this yeare, the Countesse of Salysbury was beheaded the xxviii. day of May.

The. ix. day of June, were two yemen of the kynges garde hanged at grenewitche for robbery in example of all other.

And the. x. dave of June, was Edmond Beaufort knyght arayned in y kynges hall ther, for geuing a blow in y kyngs house he shoulde haue lost his hande, yf the kynges maiestie had not extended his mercy towarde hym.

M. i.

The

Beaufort

Abnecart on of holy dayes.

The. xxi. daye of Iuly, there was another proclamaciō, that no holy day shoulde be kepte (excepte) oure ladyes dayes, the A-postels, Euangelystes. S. George saynt Mary Magdalene. And that S. Marke shall not be ta-ben, ne kept as a fastynge daye, nor S. Laurence euen. Neither that chyldren shoulde be decked, ne go aboute vpon S. Nicolas S. Katherin. S. Clement, the holy Innocentes, and suche lyke dayes.

Also the. xxviii. day of Iulye, was the Lorde Leonarde Grey beheaded at Towre hyl, for dyuers treasōs doon in Ireland, whyle he was the kyniges de-butye there.

On the same daye were three gentylmenne, called Mantyll, Koydon and Crowdes, hanged at S. Thomos of wateringes.
Lyke

Like wyse was Thomas Fines Lorde Dacres, of the Sourthe, on S. Peters day at after noone led by the mypples of London, throughe the cytye to Tyborne, where he was strangled as common murders are, and hys bodye buried in the churche of sayncte Sepulchres. The cause of the death of thys man, and the other gentylmen, was a murder of a simple man, and an un law-full assemble made in Suffex.

And the fyrst day of July, was a welcheman drawen, hanged and quartered for prophelyng of the noble kynge Henrye the eyghtes death.

Anno d. m. cccc. lxi. an. xxviii.
Henrici. viii. s. Mychell dormer mayre, s. Roulande Hyl, Henry Suchely mypples.

In thys yeare, the .x. daye of Marche, there was a mayde M. ii. boyled

boyled in smythfeld, for poysonynge of dyuers honest persons, that shee had dwelled wyth in the cytye of London.

the quene
and the lady by Roche forde be-
headed.

Thys yeare, the .xvi. daye of february was Quene Katherine Haward, & the Lady Rocheforde behaded wyth in the Towre of London. the quene for hye adultery, & the ladye Rocheforde for conspynginge of the same.

Irishmen called to honoure.

In thys yeare, came in the earle of Desmond, & the great Oneil out of Ireland, and dyd submyt theym to the Kynges maiestye, and after their submyssyon, the great Oneil was created Earle of Tyrone, and hys sonne Baron of Doncannon.

Anno d. m. cccc. xlii. an. xxxiii. Henrici octavi. John Cotes salter mayre. Henry Hobelthorne, Henry Amcotes shryffes.

In thys yeare, the frost dured so longe, that many of the pooze people cryed oute for lacke of wood and coles, that the mayre <sup>Lacke of</sup> wente to the wood warfes, and <sup>wood in</sup> solde to thee pooze people Billet <sup>london.</sup> and faggotte, by the pennye-worthe.

An thys yeare was an. Acte of parlyamente for woode and <sup>An act for</sup> Cole, to kepe the full tyle, after <sup>wood and</sup> the purificacion of oure Ladye, <sup>coles in</sup> that shuld be in the yeare of oure <sup>london.</sup> Lord. m. .cccc. xliii. that no man shuld bargayne, sell, brynge, or conuaye, to be vttered, or solde, vpon payne of forfiture.

An thys yeare, the. xxviii. daye of July, was brente at winsoze thre persons, that is do saue: one sy: Anthony person pryest, and two siculer men, and the thyrde had the kynges pardon.

Also this yeare, was proclay-med in the cytye of London, the M.iii. thyrde

Open war toward France.

thyrde daye of Auguste, open war betwene the kynge of Englande and the frenche kynge, so the kinges hyghnes, geuynge lycence and aucthoritie to euerye of hys subiectes, to vse the sayd frenche kynge, and all that depended bp on hym, to theyr mooste aduau-tage and commodytie, as hys Maiestyes enemyes, hathe in suche lyke case here tofore ben vsed and accustomed.

¶ Anno do. M. cccc. xliii. anno.
xxv. Hērici viii. Syr Wyllyam Bower draper, which deceased beyng mayre, and after him was chosen syr Raule warren. John Cowles, Rycharde Dobbes Wyryfes.

A greate
deathe.

In thys yere was a greate deathe in London, whiche contynued so longe, & there was no terme kept at Londō, at Myghel mas, but was remoued to. S.

Al.

Albones, and there kept.

In the yeaere of our Lord. M. cccc. xlv. and the. cccvi. yeaere of our Soueraygne lorde kyng Hen ry the. viii. in the tyme of the <sup>ablage in</sup> mairalty of Syr Raufe Warren, to Scotland the kynges maiestye sente an ar my into Scolande, the iiii. daye of may, and landed at Lyth, and so wente burnynge and destroy in the countrey about, sparyng neyther Castell, towne, Pyle, nor byllage.

In thys boyage at Lythe in Scotland, were mayd fyue and fourty knyghtes.

Also thys yeaere, the kynges bulleyn Maiesty prepared an army into fraunce and thither he wente bys owne persone, besyged the stronge towne of Bullen in Pycardye, as heare after ye shall heare.

bulleyn murder be spred.

The. iiii. day of July, the kyn
ges

ges maiestye departed from Dover to Callys.

The. xv. day of July, hys maiestie remoued to Dorgelsen, and there camped one nyght,

The. xvi. daye of Iulye, hys maiesti remoued to hys Bullein and there camped on the North-east parte of the towne.

The. xvii. daye of Iulye, my lorde of Suffolke layed syege vnto hyghe Bulleyn, and there camped on the East parte of the towne.

The. xviii. daye of July the watche towre, otherwise called the olde man, was wonne.

The. xix. daye of July, Base Bullen was wonne.

The. xi. daye of September was made a great Larum, and the Castell was so shaken wyth gūpoudre, that the stones, which waped, xxx. pounce waighte, dyd flye the twenty scoze of, the whiche not lyttell greued the inhabytours to theyr dayly paynes, and tormentes,

The. xiii. daye of September, the towne was victoriously conquered, by the moſte dreade ſoue-rayne lordc Kyng Henry the. viii. <sup>bulleyn</sup> whiche after the entreatye and <sup>coquered.</sup> humble peticion made of the frenchemen, gaue them lycence to take bagge and bagage wyth them, and ſo departed.

The. xiiii. daye of September at. iiii. of the clock at after noone the towne gate was opened, and the people beganne to come out, and they helde on, vntyll. vii. of the clocke at night. And there were in number of men, women and chyldzen. iiii. m. and of them <sup>the kinge</sup> xv. C. able menne of warre, and <sup>benemo-</sup> they had wyth theym as muche <sup>lence.</sup> as they could cary, both menne, W. b. women

woman and chylderne, that was able to beare anye thyng, and theyr horses and kyne were laden wyth as muche stuffe as they coude beare awaye. And they had lxxv. wagēs laden with the.

The kyng
entred bul leyn like a conqueror four

The .xv. daye of September, the kynges Maiestye entred into hyght Bulleyn, wyth the no-blytie of hys realme, and trum-pettes blowing that it reioyced al the whole hoste to heare, and wolde haue comforted all true Englyshe mens hartes, to haue heard and seene the victoꝝ and conquest that was had by oure most dread soueraygne ouer the mayden towne, for the which honour, payse, and gloꝝ, be geuen to almyghty god, grace and victoꝝ from God the father, vnto the kyng for euer amen.

Anno do. m. cccc. xliiii. anno. xxvi. Henrici octavi. Wyllyam Raxton

bas lerton mayre. John maylforde and Andrew Aud thypples.

The fyrst day of Octobye, the kynges grace departed frō Bullen toward douer. And at hys goynge, he dubbed four knyghtes at the water syde.

The. viii. daye of Octobre , the Dolphyn cam wyth a great power out of fraunce, and camped at Morgysen, and sente hys trumpeter with. ii. C. horsemen , and men of Armes toward Bulleyn and they marched on the North east syde, wher the kinges grace camped, and the trumpeter cam to Bullen gate , and blewe hys trumpet, to come to my lorde deputye , and tarped at the gate from. ix. of the clocke before noone tyll. ii. of the clocke at after none, and then he came into bulleyn to my Lorde Deputye , and sayde the Dolphyn hys mayster had had sent to somō the towne. And my lord Deputy and the counsaile gaue aunswere to the Dolphin of defiaunce, & then the trū-peter & the bushment of horsmen marched backe toward morgisen

Skirmish at Bulleyn Shortly after, besyde dyuers and manye sharpe skyrmyshes, made by the frenchemen at Bullen, as wel by the Dolphin wyth a greate power, whiche in the night seaso stole vpon Base Bullen, taking there a greate sorte of sycke persons, and women in theyr beddes, whome wythoute mercy they slew. Howbeit so māfully the Englyshemen whiche escape out of Base Bulleyn, be-haued them selves, gettyng weapons out of the high towne, that they bet the frenchemen agayne out of the Base towne, and after wyth help of the high towne they slew a greate number of them, & so

nd so agayne possessed quietlye the un sayde Base towne. And the .x. dai of Octobze, the Dolphin sente hys trumpettes to the lorde Deputy of Bullein, to knowe what en capitaynes men of armes, and en other of hys men, the Englyshe rs men had taken. The Lorde Des, putie made aunswere and sayde il he had but one. Then the Dolphins Trumpetter sayde, that e they lacked of theyr Capitanes il men of armes, and other of theyr e fotemen to the nombze of. viii. C r and mo. And the lorde Deputy e deliuered the captayne of the frenchemen & the Dolphin de-liuered oures.

The .xi. day of Octobze, came a great nauye of frenche wyppes, ryght before Bullein, and they remayned in syght two dayes, & then sayled forth betwene Bullein and Calys, to heare of their master mayster the Dolphin.

This yeare was taken by the kynges shippes of the west countrey, and the Englyshe coostes, the numbre of. ccc. french shippes and more.

The. xxvi. daye of Januarie, in the year of xlvj. there camped on the weste syde of Bulleyn beyonde the hauen, an armie of xlviii. M. and lay there the space of. x. dayes. And the. vi. daye of Februarie they were all put to shyght, by the earle of Harforde, and the lorde Admyrall then beyng lord Deputy of Bullen, with a small company of men, & without any bludshedding on the Englyshe syde, but dyuerse of them were slayne. And they left al theyr ordinaunce, wyth bage and baggage behynde them, after whiche victory, syr Thomas Poyninges was made Lorde.

This

This yere in July, aboute the x. day the frenchemen wyth a great Nauy of Shyppes, enuaded the Ile of Wight, where as they were driuen backe, and a great numbre slayne.

The frenche
men euas dro the Ile of Wight

This yere in Septembre, the Churche of sayncte Gyles wyth out Cripil gate was brente.

Anno d. m. cccc. xlv. an. xxxviii Henrici octau. Syr Martyn bowes goldsmith mayre, George Barnes, Raufe Alleyne Shyryffes.

This yere in february wolde a woman bene brent in Smyth felde for clyppinge of Golde, but the kyniges pardon came, shee beyng at the stake, ready to bee brente.

This yere, the cyterpys of London leuayed in the cytpe. ii. syftenes for the conuenyaunce of more water to the cytpe.

This yere, the. xiii. day of June beinge

A peace be twene eng
lande and
france.

being whytsonday, & the year of our Lorde God. m. cccc. xlii. a continuall peace was proclay med in the Citie of London, be twene our most renowned Henrye the eighth on the one party. And the righte hyghe and myghty pryncce, the frenche kynge on the other party, with a solempn pro fession at the time of proclamaci on geuyng laude and prayse to God, the auctoure of peace, & at night thozowout the cyty, great fyers with muche ioye & gladnes

Doctor
Crome re
canted

This yere the. xxvii. daye of June, Doctor Crome preached at Paules crosse, and there open ly confessed, that he had been se duced wyth noughty Bokes, con trarye to the true doctryne of Christe. & in this doyng he sayd he was not compelled so for too saye neither for fear, nor by any other meanes, but onely of his free

free and voluntary will.
This yere was brent in smyth felde Anne Askue, and thre more for heresy, and doctor Shaxton recanted the same tyme.

The conclusion of the peace

In the same yere, the. xxi. daye of August, came into Eng lande, to do his duety frome the frenche kyngs mounsure Dene bal, hyghe Admirall of Fraunce wyth greate triumph & brought wyth hym the Sacre of Depe, and. xii. galleis wel be sene in di uers pointes and so landed at Cowre, where as he was hono rably receyued, wyth manye no bles and peeres of the realme, and wyth the greatest shuttynge of Gunnes that euer was heard or seene, and so broughte to the Byshop of Londons place, and laye there. ii. nyghtes, that is to saye, the. xxi. and xxi. day of Au gust, in the yere of oure Lorde

R. i. m. cccc

m. cccc. xl. vi.

On the monday, the. xlii. day of August, he dyd ryde to Hampton courte, where as the kynges grace lay, and before he came to Hampton courte, my Lorde the Prynce receyued hym wyth the noblest company that euer was seene, to the numbze of. cccc. xl. veluette cootes. And my lorde Princes leuery wer wyth sleues of clothe of golde, and halfe the coote imbroded also wyth golde there were to the nūbre of. viii. c. horses, royally apparyled, why-che broughte hym to the maner of Hampton Courte, to the pruedente and redobted Prynce hys father, and Quene Katherine, and on the morowe, the kynges grace, and the sayde mounsure Benebalbrake the host betwene theymfo: a generall peace, and so continued in bankettyng and pleasure

pleasure, triumphantlye wyth the noblest Maskes and mum-miges that euer was seen, with pyuers and sundry chaunges, in so much that the torche berers were clothed in clothe of golde, this contynued. vi. dayes, and so retourned into Fraunce, wyth many sundrye gyftes geuen him and his retinew

Anno do. m. cccc. xlii. anno. xxviii. Henrici. viii. Henry Ho-welthorde marchaunte tayloure mayre. Richarde Cerues, Thomas chrase Wypples

Thys yeare, the. xix. daye of January, was the earle of Surrey beheaded at the Towre hyl for treason.

Thys yeare, the. xxviii. day of <sup>the deathe</sup> January, departed thys present <sup>of kinge</sup> lyfe the noble kynge Henrype the <sup>ry the</sup> yghte of that name whos soule God take to hys infynyte mercy.

R. ii.

under c vnder whome we hys people of Englande lyued longe a ioyfull and a peasable lyfe reduced from the erreure, to the true knowledge of god and was ful royally buried at Winsore, the .xvi. dai of februarpe, the same yeare.

Edward the .vi.

Edward the syxte began hys reygne the
.xxi. daye of January in the yeare of youre Lord. M. cccc. xlii. & was proclaymed kyng in all hys late fathers realmes and landes. And the .xix. day of february, he rode solemplye, with hys vnicle, s<sup>r</sup> Edward Semer, lorde gouernour, and Protectoure, Duke of Somerset, wth the nobiliti of the realme, from the Towre to Westmynster, thoro<sup>w</sup> the cytie of London, which was ryche

rychelye hanged with couerlyttes and capettes of tappary and ares. Chepelyde beyng rychelye hanged with cloth of syluer and golde. Every condyte runnyng wyne, Pagentes of chyldren beyng rychely apparelled, to receue hym at euery place wyth Oracions of hys prayse. And on the South syde of saynte Poules churcharde, an Argosyer came from the battilment of the same church, vpon a cable beyng made fast to an anker at the deanes dore, lying vpon hys brest adyng hym selfe, nether wyth hand nor fote, and after ascended the myd-dest of y same cable, tobled and played manye pretty toyes, wher at the kynge, wyth other of the peres and nobles of thys realme laughed hartelye.

The .xx. daye of february, hys moste noble grace, at westmin-

R.iii. ster

The coronation of kyng. Edward.
warde.

Her was proclaymed, annoynted & crowned kyng, Thomas lord Archebysshop of Cantorbury, and Metrapoletane of thys realme mynistrynge the deuine Sacramentes, and cerymonies to dooe royallye all thyng belonginge, and so contynued in barettyng triumphantly, wyth the noble maske and mummeries that euer was sene with dyuers and sundry chaunges of apparell,

The xxi. and. xxiij day sye Thomas Seymer, lord Admirall accompanied with Deuelor. sye Anthonye kyngstone, sye Peter Carowe, Knowles and Shelley, wer Chalengers agaynst all persones defendaut at the tylte barriers & turney, wherein they behaued theym selves lyke va-lyaunte menne of armes, And this was synyshed on Sondaye next folowynge beyng the. xxviij day

daye, haurynge at euery bankettes at the whiche were suche dyuers and sundrye playes with maskes, that no tyme tongue nor penne can expresse.

In thys month of March, lyz Andrew Dudley byle Admy-rall with the Daunce and the Hart, beyng but syngly maned had a great conflicte with thre Scottish shippes, beinge double manned, and trymmed wyth ordinaunce in the narrow Seas, and thanks be to God, he obty-ned the victoꝝy, and tooke many pysoners, and broaght the ship-pes into Orwell hauen, where they did remayne. For the why-che victoꝝy, let vs prayse God,

In thys fyrste yere of kynge Edward the. vi. in Auguste, the Duke of Somersete, and the earle of Warwike, wyth anoble army, were sent into Scotland R.iiii. and and nere vnto Edenbrough, at a place called Musselbough, the Englishmen and Scottes met, where betwene theim was foughd a cruel batayle, the vyc-tory (by the onely prouision of God) fel to the Englishmen, and of the Scottes, where slayue (as wytteth) Patten in hys booke, called the expedition into Scot-lande) aboue .xlii. m. and taken prysoners of lordes, kynghtes and gentel men .xii. hundred.

Anno do, m, cccc. xlvii. an. i, Edwardi sexti, Syre Ihon Greham mayre. Thomas Whyte, Robert Curtes Wyryffes.

This yeare was ordeyned the holy Comunion to be receiued in bothe kyndes.

This yeare, the laste daye of July. Docter Gardener, byshope of Wynchester was commaunded to the Towre of London,

Thys

This yeare was a great mortali-tie in London, then was a commaundement geuen to all Curates that they shoulde bury none afore syxt of the clocke in the mornyng not after sixt at nyghte. & that the bell shoulde ryng three quarters of an houre or more.

¶ Anno domi. ccccc. xlviii. anno, ii. Edwardi sexti, Henry Amp-cotes fyshmonger mayre, willia Locke Thon Ayluse Myrtyffes,

In thys yeare was Images put doune i all churches thozow Englande,

Thys yeare the mariage of priestes was graunted lawefully by parlyment,

This yeare docter Bonar bishop of London was deposed of hys bishopprike, the first daye of October, and put in prison whose by-shoprike docto: Rydley had.

¶ Anno domi. m. ccccc. xlix. an. iiii.

Ed

Edwardi sexti. Syre Rowlande Hyl mayre. Thon yorste, Thon Turke Myrtyles.

A combray
on indeut Thye,

This yeaere was a ryfing in Deuenshyre, and Cornewale about the myddes of the yeaere: whiche was damage to theim & other, wherefore theyr chyfe captaynes were taken, and brought to the Towre of London, and the .xxvi. daye of January after, was drawen, hanged and quartered, and thre more at Ciburn.
Also thys yeaere, about the same tyme, was insurreccion in Norfolke and Suffolke. And theyr chiefe captayne, captayne Kite and his brother were shortly after taken, and iudged to be hanged at Norwiche in chaynes.

A combray
on in norfolke.

Also in thys yeaere of our lorde God. M. cccc. l. the .xix. daye of Januarye captayne Gambalde:
the cappyttayne of the Spanyardes ardes, and an other Capatyne was slayne without newgate in an euenyng by a Fleming: whych was taken, and hanged on the tuen of S. Paule, and, iiii, more with hym in Smythfelde.

The. vi. day of february came the duke of Somerset out of the Towre.

In the same moneth went out of Englands certayne Lordes of the counsaile to Bulleyn where certayne of the french cousell mette with them, and after longe consultacion had, and dy-uers metynge betwene theym there was a generall peace concluded whiche peace was proclaimed, the. xxix. daye of March folowynge,

Also aboute the. xxb. daye of Apryll folowinge the towne of Bullen wyth the fortresses there bnto belöging, was deliuered by the

A peace
concluded

Bullen geuen to the frenchme the Englyshmen, into the hādes of the frenchemen.

One brest for heresysye.

In thys yeare the second day of May, was a woman brent in Smithfeld, called Joane Knel otherwise called Joane Bocher for the horryble heresye, that Chryst tooke no flesh of the vygen Mari, and at her death dyd preache master John Scorpe, a precher of Caunterbury, shew-yng vnto the people her abhominable oppynyons, warnyng all men to beware of them and such lyke.

About this tyme there were certayne lyght persons pretended a new commocion in Kente, but they were apprehended, and the.iiii. daye of Maye was for that trespass hanged at athesford Rycharde Lyon, and Goddarde Gozam, & the next day folowynge was hanged at Cantorbury, Richard charde Irelande for the same treipasse.

An. do. M. cccc. l. an. iiii. Edwardi sexti. Syr Andrewe Jud-skynner mayre. Justen Wynde, Thon Lyon Wyryffes.

The. xrb. daye of Maye was an earthquake in Sotherye, and in part of Medelsex.

An earth-
quake

This yeaere on S. Valentines daye, at Feuerham in Kente was comytted a shamefull mour-ther, for one Arden a gentylman was by the consent of his wyfe mourthered, wherefore hee was brent at Catozbury, & there was one hanged in chaynes for that mourther, & at Feuerham was two hanged in chaynes, and a woman brent, and in Smythfelde was hanged on Hosby, and hys sister, for the same murther also.

A shamefull murther

This yeaere, doctoz Gardener byshop of Wynchether the. xvi. daye day of February was deposed hys by Choprike, and so put into the Towre wher he lay durynge the lyfe of kynge Edward, all whiche time doctor Ponet hade his Bishoprike.

This yere was a dutch man brente in Smythfelde for hol-dirge of the oppinion of the Ar-ryans.

In the moneth of Iulye, there was a proclamacion for the dethe mony minishin of the quoyne, so that the pece of xii. d. was but. ix. d. & the grote but. iii. d. In the mo-neth of August next folowynge, was a nother proclamacion for the like, so that the pece of. ix. d. was but. vi. d. the pecz of. iii. pēce was ii. d. the pece of, ii. d. but a peny, and the pece of a peny but a halfe peny.

Anno do .m. cccc. li. an. v. Edwardi sexti. Richarde Dobbes Skinner

Miner mayre. Thon Lamberte.
Thon Coper Myrilles.

This yeare, the seconde daye of pouemier, the olde Quene of scottes came to london, whiche was honorablye receyued, and lodged in the bishops place.

¶ The end

In this yeare, the .xiii. dai of Januarye, the Sea brake in at Sandwyth in so muche that it dred ouerflowe all the Marches there about, and drowned much cattel, to the great losse: bothe of the towne and countrey.

In this yeare, the .xxii. daie of January, the Duke of Somerset was beheaded at the tower hyll, for conspirynge agaynst certayne of the kynges Maie-ties prynces counsaile. And on the .xxii. day of februarye following was haged sir Wale auane & sir Miles partrich, & there were beheaded Sir Thomas Arundell

hell, and syr Myghel Stanhop for lyke offence.

Anno do. m. ccccc lii. an vi. Ed wardi sexti. syre Gorge Barnes mayre, Wyllyam Garret, Thon Maynard Shryffes.

the death
of king ed ward the
vi.

In this tyme of thys mayre and in the yeare of our Lord .m. cccc. liii. and in the .vi. yeare of hys reygne the .vi. daye of Iulye departed out of this world that noble pryncce kyng Edward the vi. he died at Grenewitch, in the xvi. yeare of his Age. And after ward was buryed at westmyn-ster.

Rebellion made by p duke of northū berlande.

The x. daye of Iulye the duke of Northumberlande wyth hys adherentes, contrary to theyr a-legiaunce, dyd proclayme ladye Jane doughter to the duke of Suffolke, and wyfe to Gilforde Dudley Quene, whiche Duke in contynent, made an army agaiſt
the

the ladye Marye righte enheritoz to the crowne of this realme Butte his attempt for as muche as it was not of God could not come to good successe, for when he thought him selfe most strongest, parte of the nobilitie, and al the commō people fel from hym so that at Cambridge, he with his sonnes, and a few more were left alone, and arested and sente
to the Towre of London.

¶ Quene Mary.

Mary the eldeste doughter of king Henrie the. viii. begā her raigne ouer Englande, and was proclaymed quene v. xx. daſ of July, in the yeare of our lord M. D. liii. her grace then beinge at Framyngham, in the countye of Suffolke.

D. i.

The

The.iii.day of Auguste, her grace came to London, and so tooke possession of the Towre.
And in the tyme of her there a biding, she released oute of pry son the duke of Norfolke, docto Gardener, bishop of Winchester the lord Courtney, and the By shop of Dorham, the Bys hope of Chichester, the Bys hop of Wor ceter, the Bys hoppe of London, with other.

Shortly after, the sayde by shoppes were restored to the for mer bishoprikes, and the other putte oute: as doctour Poyne from Winchester, Doctour Ryd ley frome the bishoprike of Lon don, Doctour Scorpe frome the bishoprike of Chichester, Doc tour Hoper frome the Bys hop rike of Worcester: And maister Courdale from the byshoprike of Exeter,

The

The .xii. daye of August was beheaded at the Towrehill Jhon Dudly duke of Northumberland and Sir Jhon Gates and Sir Thomas Palmer, for treason of whiche duke at the tyme of hys death did recant hys former lyfe and exhorted the people notte to be ashamed to retorne to the ca-tholyke fayth.

On the fyrst day of October queene mary was crowened at westminster, by Doctoure Garde (former Byshop of wyndchester) Thomas Cranmer Archbyshoppe of Cantorbury then beinge pryso-ner) whiche coronacyon was done very royally and solemp-nely, and muche people oute of all partes of the realme, resorted to the sight therof.

The .x. day of October begane the parlyament, and certayne D. ii. Actes

Actes made in kyng Edward the. vi. dayes, whiche were not thought necessary, were repealed, amonge whiche the acte for the mariage of priestes, was repealed, and the act for establishing of Englishe service was also repeled, and the Letany seruice set forth.

Also at this parlement were conuicted of high treason Thon Duke of Northumberland, Thomas Cranmer archebishops of Cantorbury, wylliam Marques of Northampton, Thon erle of Warwike, syr Ambrose Dudley knight, Gylford dudley Esquier and Jane hys wyfe Henry dudley esquier, Andrew dudley knyght, syr Thō gates, sir thomas Palmer.

An. do. M. cccc. liii. anno. i.
Marie. Thomas whyte Mar-chaunt chast tailer mayre Thomas Osse ley William Hewet Shirifes.

This yere shortly after Chri-stemas came frome the Emperour in the name of the house of Burgonye, Ambassadors, as the countye Degmont, countye Diuiline and mounser curzier, with other.

This yere the xv. daye of January Syr Thomas Wyatt, Syr George Harper Henry Jley, and Leonarde Dygges wyth other, began a rebellion at Maydstone in Kent, & made proclamation pretendinge for to defende thys realme from Spaniardes, and other straungers which were likely to rule this realme, and to implant their nacion among vs to oure hurte. Then wyat came to Rochester where came to theym diuers as well borne out of Kente as in Kente, as Robert

D.iii.

bert Kudstone, Cuthbert Maugh Walter, and Wayter Mantes, Kneuct, Godfrey, wyth dyuers oher. At whiche comocion and sure, althoughe there came to them diuers, out of diuers pla ces of Kente yet Cantorburpe continued true and faithful, in so much that through the good nes of god, and circumspect pro uision & diligente attendaunce of Ihon Ewin mayre, and hys brethren the aldermen, wyth the faythful assistaunce of oher, the citie was defended from rebels and not so much as one known of the cytpe, to haue fled to wyat or to any of hys adherentes.

The .xx. daye of thee same mo nth, y duke of Norffoke, came to Stroude, & bent hys artyllarye agaainste Rochester where wyat
was

was, but the Londoners wyth theyr capteines turned agaynste hym: and wyth great shouttyng went vnto wyat: So that the duke hardely escaped wyth hys life.

On the next daye wyat went to Coolinge, and toke the Lorde Cobham.

And on thursdaye folowynge, the Queene wyth her Lordes, came to welde Hall in London, and there made an oracyon to the mayre, and to the citizinges hortynge theym to be faythful & true subiects to her, in assistynge her against Wyat and hys complices: who wyth one voyce assented therevnto. And on Candlemas euen, wyat with his com-panye came into Southwarke there thinkinge to bee receyued of the Londoners: Butte the D.iiii. draw dra'we brydge was plucked by against him. And lord wylliam Haward ioynd in comynssyon wyth the mayre, for the defence of the cytye.

The .vi. daye of february wyat wente to Kingstone on Thames & passed the water, but manye fled frome him as they dyde that nighte before he wente oute of Southwarke.

On A Wednesdaye the .vii. daye of februarye, some of hys souldiours were ouer runne in S. James field and aboute charinge crosse & fletestret: but wyat with certeyne of hys companye, went to Ludgate before he was taken, and seinge thee gate so surely shutte, he returned backe agayne.

In the meane while Kneute wyth other hotte fyerslye at the court gate.

This

Thys rebellion in Kent, was joyned and confedered wyth the commocion moued and attempted in Deuonshire, by syr Gauen Carowe, and syr Peter Carowe gibbes Champernham, & othere whiche Peter fled in to Fraunce but syr Gauen and Gybbes, with other were there taken.

Also thys was confedered wyth Henry Gray duke of Suffolke who was apprended by the erle of Huntingdon, and condempned of high treason at Westminster the .xvii. daye of February, and suffered deathe for the same at the Towre hill the .xviii. daye of February.

Henry Iley coming to wyke was enconutred with the lorde Aburganye, maister Warham William Sentlegers, mayster George Clarke of Wrothame, and there discomfited, fledde in-
to

to Hambyze, where he was taken in the apparel of a mariner, his face dyfigured wyth coale and dirte, and broughte vnto London.

William Albright person of Kingston beside Barramdoune (a preacher of the gospell) was taken beside charynge crosse, the vii. daye of February in this rebellion.

The. xiii. daye of Februarie was Gylford Dudley beheaded on towre hyll, and his wife lady Jane within the towre the same daye also.

The. xiii. daye of Februarie were hanged for the sayd rebellion vicars one of the garde, & Hugh Both the quenes soteman great Ihon Noton, and Kynge, and aboute London the number of. xxx. some Londoners that fled from the duke of Norfolke folke, some Kentishe men.

Roberte Rudstone wylliam Cromer, Bret, Cutberte Mang-ham, Henrye Wane : Thomas Culpeper of Aliforde and kne-uet, water and water Mantels Lorde Thon Gray and Leonerd Digges, were comdemned in westminster hall of treasone for that rebellyon.

Immediatly after were apprehended and broughte to the Towre of London lord Thomas Graye and Syr James Crokes confederated wyth the Duke of Suffolke in the same rebellyon.

Shortly after the Queene pardoned. iiii. C. and more of the inferier sort, whyche came bnto westminster wythihalters about theyr neckes, and had pardon, whiche wer misled by euil dispo-

dispo-

disposed aboue named.

Immediatly after was summoned a parlement to bee holden at Oxforde, but it was retourned to westminster and there holden.

The .x. daye of Aprill Syr Thomas wyat was beheaded at the Towre hyl, and quartred and hys quarters set bp in diuers places: And hys head sette vpon the Galwes one Hey hyl where hys power was discomfited, but some of hys frendes belyke, stole it away.

And the eyghtene daye of Maye, one wylliane Thomas was drawne hanged and quartred at Tyburne for hygh treason.

The .xxii. daye of June was proclamaciō made concernynge shotinge in handegunnes, & bearing of weapons.

The

The .xx. daye of July Phylippe Prince of Spayne, Landed atte Southampton, where he was honorably receiued. At hys fyrst settinge foote on the lande, the Garter of the order was gcuen him, and sette faste a bouthe hys legge.

Upon the next Mondaye fol-lowynge, the sayede Prynce of Spayne, rode frome South-hampton into Wynchester, accompanied wyth the Nobilitie of England.

The .xxiii. daye of July the Noble Prynce Phylippe was honoureably receyued into the citie of Winchester.

And hys gr ace wente into Thee Cathedral Church before he tooke hys lodgyng, and there the Byschoppe of Wynchester: and foure Byschoppes moore wyth the Pryestes syngynge
men

Countes of Baspurge. Flaunders and Triol, Then the kynge and quene came forth the hande in hand, wyth the nobles waytyn on them, and two swordes borne before them, so goinge on foot to the courte.

The .xvi. daye of August the kynge and quene came to Southfolke place in Southwarke, and dyned, after dinner with moost part of the Nobilitie, they roode ouer London bydge, and so throughe the cytye whiche was hanged richelye. And at euery cundite as they came were gorgeous pageauntes, of dyuers stories in prayse and commendations of the kynge and quene: all so their maiesties were receiued reuerently into the churche of S. Paules, by the bishop of London, after they hade the prayser, they rode forth to westminster.

minster.

In the tyme of thys maire, & in the yere . M. D. liiii was the Latyne seruice restored by authoritie of perlement.

In this yere came dyuers ambassadors to the kynge and queene, frome all partes and countreys of Christendome, as from Polan, Hungarye, Naples, Farrer, & other counterie, and cities.

Anno dom. M. D. liiii. anno. i. et. ii. Philippi. et. Marye. Thon Lyon Grocer Marye. Dauyed Wodrose wylliam Chesterhyrises.

In thys yere came in, and was honorablie receyued in dyuers places lorde cardinall Pole legate frome the see of Rome into England. &c.

In this yere a perlement was holden at Westmynster, where P. i. amonge

among other thynges there provided the Englyshe scrupce and the communion boke was derogated and dysanulled and a generall submission of the realme of Englande made to the see of Rome (the Lorde cardinall Pole beyng restored) all lawes to the contrary dissolued.

Thys yeare in Lent wente to Rome the ryghte honozable the lord byshope of Ely and the lord Montacute, ambassadoys from the kyng and quene.

In the tyme of thys mayre, in the yeare, M. D. lv. In diuers partes of thys realme were apprehended diuers persones for religyon, many of them not converted suffered death by fyre (in many place of thys realme) as at London one Rogers, Thome Hoper at worcester, where he was bi shop, one Farrer at . S

David's in Wales where he was an bishop, doctour sailer at Hadley in Suffolke, & Bradford also at London, Bland a priest at Can terbury, wyth other.

In thys yeare in June the lorde chauncelour of Englande, the lord of Arundel, the Lorde Dagret went ouer the sea to Callis, and nere vnto Marke, treated wyth the Emperours and the french kynges commissioners, for a peace betwene the to sayde peynces, the lord cardynal being president and there present, but returned without effect.

In thys yeare in the latter ende of June was mutenye trate ment attempted aboute Wadmarst in Southier. But it was spedely perceyued and repelled wittely.

In thys yeare the .xi. day of August was a sore fight on the sea, be

P.ii

twene

twene the french men, & dutch men, nere vnto Romney maras where .xi. shippes were brente.
sonke: that is .vi. frenche ship and .v. greathulkes, and certen hulkes taken by the french men.

Thys yere in the beginning of September the kyng went to Callis and so vnto Brussels to visite his father, the Emperour.

Anno do. M. D. lb. anno. ii. et iii Philip. et. Marie. Syr Wyl lyam Gerret Haberdasher Mayr Thomas Lee, Thon Macham, syrpys.

This yere was a proclama tion of truce betwene Charles the Emperoure and Henry the french kyng.

In thys yere in Nouember.
Nicolas Ridley byshop of Lon don.

ch. 10. and Hugh Lotimer were asente at Oxford.

In Lent folowynge Thomas Cranmer Archebysshop of Canterburge was also at Oxforde thent.

This yeare the .x. day of Marche appeared a notable comet or bla-nigestarre, and many chylrene were monstrosly borne in England.

This yeare Cardynall Pole
the Loide Legate, was consecrated Archbysshoppe of Cantor-bury, for whom maister Roberte Colins comessary and prebendary of Christes church was installed on the day of the Annunciation of our Ladye, wyth the rites and ceremonies there vnto belonginge.

This yere was detected a hainous conspiracie bothe agaynste the kinge and queenes Maie-

P.iii.

ties

twene the French men, & Dutch
men, nere vnto Romney maras
where. xi. Shippes were brente.
sonke: that is. vi. Frenche ship
and. v. greathulkes, and certen Hulkes taken by the French
men.

Thys yere in the beginning of September the kynge went to Callis and so vnto Brussels to
visite his father, the Emperour.

Anno do. M. D. lv. anno. ii. et
iii Philip. et. Marie. Syr Wyl lyam Gerret Haberdasher May:
Thomas Lee, Thon Macham,
Syr yfes.

This yere was a proclama tion of truce betwene Charles
the Emperoure and Henry the French kynge.

In thys yere in Nouember.
Nicolas Ridley byshop of Lon don.

hon. and Hugh Lotimer were present at Oxford.

In Lent folowynge Thomas
Cranmer Archebysshop of Cantorburie was also at Oxforde present.

This yeare the .x. day of Marche
appeared a notable comet or blastingestarre, and many childrene were monstrosly borne in England.

This yeare Cardynall Pole
the Loide Legate, was consecrated Archbysshoppe of Cantor-
bury, for whom maister Roberte Colins comessary and prebendary
of Christes church was installed on the day of the Annuncia-
tion of our Ladye, wyth the rites and ceremonies there unto belonginge.

This yere was detected a hai-
nous conspiracie bothe agaynste
the kinge and queenes Maie-

P.iii.

ties

ties royall persons, and inuasi-on of þe realme. for the same dyed Widal, Frogmorton, Daniel, Pecham, Stanton, and diuers for thee same conspiracie fled oute of the realme.

Anno do M. cccc. lvi. anno. m. et. lvi. Phil. et. Marie sir Thomas Offelpe Mayre, nayllman Harper, Thon Whyte, Shyppfes.

Thys yere in februarie the Lorde Surton was arayned at westminster hall, for murder-inge of twoo gentlemen, & the seconde daye of Marche he was conuayed throughe London and so to Salisbury, and the vi. daye of Marche suffered thee paynes of death.

In the time of thys mair, and yere. M. D. lvi. the .xxvii. daye of february came to the Kyng and Quene, and ambassadours
from

from the emperour of Ruffe,

In this yere in Marche the kinges grace returned into Englande, and the. xii. daye of the same moneth, the kynge and the queenes maiesties came fro Grenewyche by water, and landed at the towre warre, and so came through London to westminster, with a goodly company

In this yere in Maye came Henry Stafford from Fraunce and tooke Scabarowe Castell, which he enioyed two dayes and then was taken wth his complices and brought to London, where he suffered at the towre byll for treason.

In this yere upon the monday in whytsonweke being the vi. daye of June was a proclamacion of warre, betwene the queenes mayestie and the frenche P.iii. kinge

kyng, wher vpon the quene sente ouer an armie of men, the Erle of Penbrooke ordaining lord general, which mete the king and hys army at a towne in Fraunce called S. Quintins.

The .x. daye of Auguste wer take (commynge to rescue the sayed towne) these Capytaynes here after folowynge.

The constable of Fraunce & hys yongest sonne, the Duke of Mounpaigne, the duke of Languilla, the Marshall of S. Andrew, the Kingraunce coronal of Almanine, Rocha dumayn, Rocha forza, Viscount de Churan, de Baron of courton, the prynce of Mantua, besyde manye gentlemen and capytaynes were taken.

The .xviii. daye of Auguste was taken the stronge towne of S. Quintins.

Anno. do. M. cccc. lvi. ann.
iii. & b. Philip. & Marie. sic Thomas Curtes fyshmonger mayre. James Malele Ry-chard Altum. Chyppes.

In the tyme of this mayre, the frenchmen came to Calis, with a great army, & laied siege therunto, & on new yeares day they wanne the towne with all the other pieces on that syde
the sea.

Also the xxix. of July certaines of the Quenes Chyppes landed in Bretayne at a place called Blanchbay, & marched to the towne of Conquet, and burned the sayd towne wyth the towne of S. Andrewes, and S. Ma-thewes, and dyuers other villages, & so returned wythout great losse of men.

Shortly after the frenchme spoiled and burned Dunkirke

B. b.

iii

in flanders, but they were lone after met by the power of kyng phylipp, and many taken and many slayne.

Anno. do. M cccc. lviij. an. v. and vi. Phylippe and Marye, Syr Thomas Lee mercer maire. Thomas Babole Ry-card Chamgney, Chyryffes.

In the yeaere of our lord. m. cccc. lviij. and the. vi. yeaere of her reigne the. xviij. day of No-uember, departed oute of this worlde Quene Mary, she dyed at saynt James in the fylde in the. xliij. yeaeres of her age, and hether buried at westminster.

Queene Elizabeth.

Ur moste gracious soueraigne lady que-ne Elizabeth, began her reigne over this realme of England, & was proclaimed Quene the xiiij. daye of Nouember, in the yeare of our lord. m. cccc. lviij. her grace then beyng at Watfild.

And vpon Saturdaye whiche was the xliij. day of Januarie folowng about. ii. of the clocke at after none, her grace marched frome the Towre too passe throughe the Cytie of Londo to-warde Westminster, richely furnished, and most honozably accompanied, as wel wyth gentil-men Barons and other the nobilitie of thys realme, as also wth a noble trayne of goodly beautiful

tiful ladies richly appoynted. and vpon sonday, being the xv. day of January her grace was honorable crowned at westminster by the Bishop of Carlil

The yere of our lord. m. cccc lix. & the viii. day of April, was a proclamaciō of peace, betwene the Quenes maiesty and the frenche kyng. And also be-twene hyr maiesty, & the kyng & quene Dolphines of Scotlande.

(*)

Here after foloweth of the lengthe, breadethe and compasse of Englande, with the numbre of the parishe churches, townes, and Bishoprikes.

England cōteineth in length from the utter most parte of the North called Barwyke, to the uttermost parte of the South, called Dorchemouth: about .iii. C. and .xx. miles. And from Douer in the East, to the uttermost part of the West, in Cornemayl: about .iii. C. miles.

The length of England from Car-thyn in the Marches of Scotland, to Totnes in Denonshyre, is. CCC. myles.

The breadth from S. Dauids in Wales vnto Douer, is about. CCC.
myles.

And the compas of England round about

about is foure thousand three hundred died. lx. myles.

There ben in Englande of paryshe chutches the number of. clxxv. thousande, eyght hundred and twenty.

There be in England of bishoppes kes fyue and twenty.

Shyre townes or countyes, the num-bre of. xxxviii.

Oftownes, besyde cytyes and castels, to the numbre of thre thousand thre score and ten.

There is shewed how þe thire townes lye. with the greatest and molte notable townes, as thire townes, cities, borowes, & market townes. & what distaunce they be a sunder.

Here foloweth the way fro Wallingham to London.

From Wallingham to Wyke miles.
From Wyke to Brandon
miles.
From

from brandenfer to newmarket. x. mile from new market to babram. x. mile from babram to barkemay. x. myle from barkemay to puerich. vii. myle from puerich to ware. vi. myle from ware to waltham. viii. myle from waltham to London. xii. myle.

¶ Here foloweth the waye fro Barwyke to yorke and so
 to London,

¶ From barwyke to anky. xii. mile from Ankye to Morp. xii. myle.
 from Morpys to newcastell xii. myle from Newcastle to Dozam xii. myle from Dozam to Waryngton xii. my.
 from Waryngton to Northaleton, xiii. myles from Northaleton to Topelyse. vii.
 myles
 from Topelyse to yorke xvi. my from yorke to Radcaster viii. myle from Radcaster to wentbyrdege. x. my.
 fro wentbyrdege to dancaster. viii. my.
 fro dancaster to tursorde. xvi. my.
 from

From Rutford to Newark. x. mile from Newark to Grantham. x. mile from Grantham to Stanford. xli. mi. from Stanford to Stilton. xii. my.
 from Stilton to Duntyngham. ix. my.
 from Duntyngham to Koyton. xv. my.
 from Koyton to Ware. xii. my.
 from Ware to Waltham. vii. my.
 from Waltham to London. xii. myle

¶ Here foloweth the waye fro Carnaruan to Chester, and so to London.

¶ From Carnaruan to Conuay: xciii. myles fro conuay to Dinbigh. xii. my.
 from Dynbigh to Flynt. xii. my.
 from Flynt to Chester. x. my.
 from Chester to Wyth. xliii. my.
 from Wyth to Stone. xv. my.
 from Stone to Lychfeld. xvi. my.
 from Lychfeld to Colfel. xii. my.
 from Colfyl to couentre. lvi. my.
 And so from couentre to London, as here after foloweth.

¶ Here foloweth the waye fro Cokermouthe to Lancaster, and so to London.
 from

From Cokermouth to Ryssyk vi. myles Ryssyk vnto Brocener. viii.
myles.

From Brocener to kandale. xiii. my.
from kandale to Burton vii. my.
from Burton to Lancaster vii. my.
from Lancaster to Preston xx. my.
from Preston to Wygam xiii. my.
from Wygam to Warington xii. my.
from Warington to Newcastle. xx. mi. from Newcastle to Lichfeld. xx. my.
from Lichfeld to couentre xx. my.
from couentre to Danetre. xiii. my.
from Danetre to Iowchester. x. my. from Iowchester to Stony Stratford
vi. myles.
from Stony Stratford to Buryl. vii. m. from Buryl to Dunstable vii. my.
from Dunstable to S. Albons. x. my. from S. Albons to Barnet. x. my.
from barnet to London. x. myles

¶ Here foloweth the waye fro Ter mouth to Colchester, and so to London.

from

From Jermouth unto becelys viii. miles from becelys to blybour, vi. myl from blybour to no swapbridge. viii.
 miles
 fro swapbridge to wodbrydg viii. myl from wodbrydg to Jpwytch v. myle from Jpwytch to colchester. xii. myl from colchester to Eassford viii. myle from Eassford to chylmestford. x. myl from chylmestford to brentwood. x. myl from brentwood to London xii. myl

Here foloweth the way fro Douer to london

From Douer to cantorbury.
 xii. miles from cantorbury to Syttinge bourne x. miles from Syttingebourne to rocheher
 viii. miles from rocheher to Grauesend, v. myle from grauesend to Darford. vi. myle from Darford to London xii. myl

Here foloweth the way fro saynct Burien in Cornewall to london.

This is the way from Burien in Cornwall to London

From S, buryen to the most rr, miles
fro the mount to stihury xiii m from f. thury to bondnam, xx miles from bondam to Launston xx. m from launston to Ocomton xx, m fro Ocomtō to crokehornewel x. m fro crokehornewel to exceter x m from exceter to Honyton. xii. m from Honyton to charde, x. m from charde to crochozne. vi m from crokehozne Ghyrbozne, x m fro Ghyrbozne to shaftisbury x. m fro shaftisbury to Salisbury xviii m fro Salisbury to Anduout. xv. m fro Anduout to basynkeck xviii, m fro basynkeck to herford xiii. m from herford to bagshot. xiii. m from bagshot Stanes xiii. miles from Stanes to London xx, m

Where folowethe the waye from Bypstow to London.

From bypstow to Marfeld. x. m fro marfelde to chypnam. x. m fro chypnam to marlebozow x m fro malbozow to hungerford. xii. m fro hunford to Reubeys. ix. m
from

from Rembert to Reding xv. myl from Reding to Maydenhead. x. myl from Maydenhead to Colbroke. vii. myl from Colbroke to London xv. myl

¶ Here followeth the waye from saint Davids to London.

If from saint Davids to Arford. xx. myl from Arford to Carmarthen. xx. myl from Carmarthen to Newt. d. c. myl from Newton to Lanbury x. myl from Lanbury to Brecknocke. xvi. myl from Brecknocke to Hay. x. myl from Hay to Harford. xliii. myl from Harford to Kola ix. myl from Kola to Gloucester xii. mile from Gloucester to Cichester. xv. myl from Cichester to Farington xvi. myl from Farington to Habington. vii. myl from Habington to Dorchester. vii. myl from Dorchester to Denley. xii. myl from Denley to Maydenhead. vii. myl

from Maydenhead to Colbroke. vii. myl

from Colbroke to London. xv. myl

¶ F I N I S.

¶ Imprinted at London by

Thom Lynge in Paules church yerde, sygne at the Swanne.

John

ny
my my ole tr
n.
na
c. m
my
my my my my
my my le
ny
mt.
or
ny.
my
in
l. m ple by